

Grandiloquent Dictionary
Third Edition

C.S. Bird

February 25, 2006

Grandiloquent Dictionary

by

C.S. Bird & Associates

© 2006, C.S. Bird and Associates

First published in electronic form in December 1998.

First published in paperback in June 1999.

Second Printing, January 2003

Third Printing, January 2006

No part of this book may be reproduced in any form, including but not limited to electronic copies and photocopies, without the express written consent of the authors or any agent chosen by the authors.

A

abacinate - To blind by putting a hot copper basin near someone's eyes abcedarian - A person who teaches the alphabet abderian - given to incessant or idiotic laughter abecedarian - A person who is learning the alphabet abishag - A child born to a married man's mistress ablegate - A representative of the pope who assists in selecting cardinals abligurition - Excessive spending on food and drink ablutophobia - A fear of bathing abnormous - Something which is misshapen acarophobia - 1. A fear of insects acarophobia - 2. A fear of mites acarophobia - 3. A fear of small things, especially bugs acathasia - The habit of sitting down accidia - A feeling of being unable to think or act due to excessive sadness accipitrine - having a nose like a hawk's beak accoucheur - A man who assists in delivering babies, usually at home accubation - The practice of eating or drinking while lying down accubitus - Sharing a bed for sleeping only aceldama - A blood soaked battlefield acerbophobia - See acerophobia acerophobia - The fear of sourness achluophobia - A fear of darkness or of the night acosmist - One who believes that nothing exists acouasm - A buzzing or a ringing of the ears acoucheuse - A midwife, or other person who assists in delivering babies acousticophobia - A fear of noise acrasia - Acting against one's own judgment, or lacking self control acrocephalic - Having a pointy head acronycal - Occurring at sunset acronyx - An ingrown fingernail or toenail adelphepthia - An incestuous desire for one's sister adelphirexia - An incestuous desire for one's nephew adelphithymia - An incestuous desire for one's niece adhocracy - Rulership by committees and task forces adiabolist - One who does not believe in the existence of a Devil adoxography - Skilled writing about an unimportant subject aelurophobia - See ailurophobia aeolist - A pompous windy bore who pretends to have inspiration aeroacrophobia - See aerophobia aeromancy - Divination using the air aerophobia - 1. A fear of air aerophobia - 2. A fear of flying aesthete - One who obsessively pursues or admires beauty afflatus - A divine inspiration leading to creativity affunters - In a messy or disordered state aforcing - Adding rice or grains to a dish to serve more people agalaxy - Unable to produce milk agamous - The state of being unmarried agapetae - early church women who lived with celibate men agathocacological - Composed of both good and evil agelast - A person who never laughs agenhina - A guest at an inn, who is considered to be one of the family agerasia - The state of looking younger than one really is ageustia - The lack of a sense of taste, either literally or in opinions aginate - To sell small items aginator - A merchant who sells only small items agiotage - Speculation in the stock market agist - A fee charged to private landowners for public services, or the requirement that private land be used for public services aglet - The plastic or metal tip on the end of shoelaces agogic - Pertaining to the making of wax models agonous - Engaged in deadly combat agoraphobia - A fear of open places agraffe - The wire that holds the cork in a bottle of champagne agrapha - The collective name for phrases which are often quoted and attributed to someone who never said them.

agrizoophobia - A fear of wild animals agroof - flat on your face agyiophobia - The fear of streets or crossing the street ai - A South American three toed sloth aichmophobia - A fear of pointed or sharp objects aichmorhabdophobia - A fear of being beaten with a pointed stick aichurophobia - The fear of being touched by a pointed object ailuromancy - Divination by studying a cat's jump ailurophobia - A fear of cats albophobia - The fear of white people albuminuriaphobia - A fear of kidney disease alcedama - A blood soaked field or a battlefield electromantia - A process in which a rooster is asked a question, and then a single grain is placed on each letter of the alphabet and the order of his eating determined the answer alectryomancy - Magic using corn alektorophobia - A fear of chickens aleuromancy - Divination using flour algerining - Prowling around with the intent to commit burglary algology - The study of seaweed or marine algae algophobia - A fear of pain alieniloquent - Speaking discursively or straying from one's point alliaceous - Smelling like garlic or onions alliumphobia - A fear of garlic alldoxaphobia - A fear of other people's opinions allotheism - The worship of strange gods alopeciaphobia - A fear of going bald alopecist - A person who claims to prevent baldness alphamegamia - The marriage between a young woman and an older man alphitomancy - Divination using barley meal alterocentric - Someone whose life revolves around other people atiloquent - Speaking pompously or in a high flown manner altitonant - Thundering from above or on high altophobia - A fear of heights or high places alychiphobia - The fear of failure alytarch - A referee, or person who enforces game rules amathophobia - A fear of dust amaut - A fur lined hood on the back of a women's parka, usually used for carrying an infant.

amaxophobia - A fear of riding in automobiles ambeer - The spittle produced when chewing tobacco ambiguphobia - A fear of being misunderstood ambulomancy - Divination by walking ambulophobia - The fear of walking amentia - temporary insanity or a dazed trance anomaxiaphobia - A fear of making love in an automobile ampherotokous - Having both male and female offspring amphigory - A poem that seems profound but is really complete nonsense amphigory - A seemingly profound poem which is actually nonsense amrita - A drink which bestows immortality in Hindu mythology amychophobia - A fear of being scratched anabatic - Related to wind currents, especially rising winds anablepophobia - A fear of looking at high places anacardic - Pertaining to a cashew nut anadipsia - excessive thirst anagapesis - The feeling when one no longer loves someone they once did anasarkas - A condition in which a person is so swollen that they appear to have no muscles anaxiphillia - The act of falling in love with the wrong person anconeal - Related to the elbow androcracy - A government consisting of men androlepsia - A kidnapping by a foreign government for political gain androphobia - A fear of men anemophobia - The fear of wind angelocracy - Rulership by angels anginophobia - A fear of choking or suffocating anile - Resembling a doddering old-woman, although usually used to imply loss of mental ability anililagnia - An attraction to older women anklyosis - The stiffness of immobility of a joint ankylophobia - A fear of joint immobility anoegenetic - Not producing new work or original knowledge anonymuncle - A petty anonymous writer anopisthographic - Having writing only upon one side anserine - Like a goose antapology - A response to an apology, usually attacking the justification included in the apology antedeluvian - Very old or ancient, or pertaining to the era before Noah's flood anteric - Pertaining to revenge against a former lover or a lover who betrays anthomancy - Divination using flowers anthophobia - A fear of flowers anthracomancy - Divination using burning coals anthrophobia - The fear of people anthropoglot - Any animal, such as a parrot, which is capable of copying human speech anthropolatry - Worship of a human as though they were a god anthropomancy - Magic or divination using people, or foretelling the future using the entrails of a sacrificed person anthropopathy - Ascribing human feelings or traits to God or to the gods anthropophobia - See anthropobia anthroposcopy - The art of determining personality or character from physical features anthropotheism - The belief that gods began as humans and are human in nature antinomian - Rejecting the authority of moral or religious law antiscian - A person who lives on the other side of the world from you antisocordist - One who speaks against laziness and stupidity antlophobia - A fear of floods or flooding antonomasia - The practice of using trademarked names as generic terms anuptaphobia - The fear of staying unmarried anxiolytic - Serving to reduce tension or stress apanthropia - A fear of people apeiophobia - A fear of infinity aphephobia - The fear of touching or being touched apikoros - A Jewish person who does not follow Jewish law apiophobia - A fear of bees apocalocytosis - The act of being turned into a pumpkin apocatastasis - The belief that all people will be saved by God apodyopsis - The act of mentally undressing someone aporia - The feeling you have when your problems cannot be solved apotheosis - The elevation of a mortal to deity apricate - To spend time basking in the sunshine aproner - A merchant or shopkeeper aprosexia - The inability to concentrate apronym - An appropriate name for someone or something aquabib - An individual who only drinks water aquaphobia - The fear of water arachibutyrophagia - The act of eating peanut butter arachibutyrophillia - The love of peanut butter arachibutyrophobia - Fear of peanut butter arachnivorious - Eating spiders arachnophobia - The fear of spiders arctophilist - A collector of teddy bears arietate - To strike with a battering ram or to butt like a ram aristology - The science of dining aristophren - A person possessing a superior intellect arithmophobia - A fear of numbers armomancy - Divination involving the shoulder blades of animals arrhenophobia - A fear of male offspring arrhenotokous - Having only male offspring arsle - To move backwards or to retreat rapidly ascian - A person who has no shadow aspergillum - A device for sprinkling holy water, usually a perforated sphere aspersorium - A basin for holy water assanka - The number ten to the sixty-third power astereognosis - The loss of the ability to recognize shapes by touch asthenic - Being lean and frail asthenophobia - The fear of weakness astragalomancy - Divination using dice astrapophobia - The fear of thunder and lightning astrophobia - The fear of stars ataxiophobia - A fear of disorder atelophobia - A fear of defects or imperfections atephobia - A fear of rivers atychiphobia - A fear of failure aubade - A love song which is sung at dawn augury - Divination using bird's flight aulophobia - A fear of flutes aureate - Pertaining to the fancy or flowery words used by poets aurophobia - A fear of gold austromancy - Divination using the wind autodeist - One who believes they are a god autodidact - A person who has taught themselves autodysomophobia - A fear of one's own body odour autohagiographer - A person who speaks or writes in a smug way about their life and accomplishments autolatry - The worship of one's self autology - The study of oneself automysophobia - A fear of being dirty autotheist - One who worships themselves autotonsorialist - A person who cuts their own hair autovoxiphilia - Love of one's own voice aval - Pertaining to grand parents avenage - Oats paid to a landlord when the tenant could not pay the rent avenage - Oats that were paid to landlords in lieu of rent by the poor avering - When a poor person removes all of their clothing to increase sympathy while begging averruncator - A long stick with shears for cutting high branches avetrol - An illegitimate child aviatophobia - A fear of flying ayurnamat - The philosophy that there is no point in worrying about events that cannot be changed

B

bacillophobia - A fear of germs badot - An idler or something or someone who is silly baffound - To stun or perplex bailiwick - The region in which a sheriff has legal powers baisemain - A kiss on the hand baize - The green cloth used on billiard tables and other gaming tables balatron - A babbling buffoon balbutiate - To stutter or to stammer baldric - A belt worn over the shoulder and chest used to hold a sword ballicatter - The ice that forms around shores and docks from the cold ocean spray ballistophobia - A fear of being shot, or of guns and missiles balnearii - People who steal clothing for public baths balnearil - The people who stole clothing from a public bath in ancient Rome barathrum - A person who eats like they were a bottomless pit barathrum - A pit into which condemned people are placed to die.

barleychild - A baby born less than six months after marriage barophobia - A fear of gravity barophobia - Fear of gravity basiphobia - The fear of walking basistasiphobia - The fear of standing and walking basophobia - See basiphobia basorexia - An overwhelming desire to neck or kiss bataphobia - A fear of heights or high places bathophobia - A fear of depth bathysiderodromophobia - Fear of subways batophobia - A fear of tall buildings batrachoid - Like a frog batrachophagous - One who eats frogs batrachophobia - A fear of frogs or toads battology - Tiresome and repetitive talking bawcock - A nice gentleman bdelloid - Resembling a leech bdellophobia - A fear of leeches beaze - To dry in the sun begrumped - To be very unhappy or displeased beldam - A foul old woman belgard - A sweet and loving look belomancy - Fortunetelling through the use of arrows belonephobia - A fear of pins and needles bialag - A person in front of a second person riding the same horse bibliomancy - Divination using books or Bible passages bibliophobia - A fear of books biblioplist - One who deals in rare books bibliothecary - A person who collects and maintains books bicorne - 1. The hat with two points worn by Napoleon bicorne - 2. In French lore, a two horned monster that eats hen-pecked husbands bifilar - Sewing with two threads at once biometeorology - The study of how the weather affects people bissextile - 1. Related to the extra day in a leap year bissextile - 2. Describing a leap year bitheism - Believing in two gods blandiloquent - Speaking in a flattering or ingratiating way blatherskite - An obnoxious braggart blatteroon - A person who will not stop talking blattoid - Like a cockroach blellum - an idle boring chatterer blennogenous - Something which produces mucus blennophobia - A fear of slime blennorrhoea - An unusually large discharge of mucus, or a continuous discharge of mucus blepharon - A person with huge eyebrows blepharospasm - A form of constant winking bletcherous - Pertaining to something poorly designed or disgusting in design

blodder - To flow with a gurgling sound from a small aperture blowsabella - A red faced wench boanthropy - The delusion that one is an ox bodach - In British lore, a small creature who lives in the chimney and comes out at night to abduct naughty children bogglish - Being uncertain or nervous bogyphobia - A fear of goblins bombilate - To loudly hum or buzz continuously bonnyclabber - Milk which has become thick due to being sour borborygmus - The rumbling sound of gas passing through the intestine bordlode - A service tenants are required to perform as part of the rental agreement botanomancy - Divination using plants botanophobia - A fear of plants boucan - A naturally occurring bed of burning coals bouquinist - A dealer of worthless used books bourdon - The bass drone of a bagpipe or of the low pitched notes on a pipe organ

boustrophedon - A form of writing which alternates left to right / right to left, also used to describe some forms of typesetting.

bowdlerize - To purge literature of all possibly offensive or morally impure material brachiation - The act of swinging through the trees, such as performed by monkeys brachistichrone - The path between two points along which a particle travels for the shortest time brachycephalic - Having a head that is broad brannigan - 1. A spree of excessive drinking brannigan - 2. Any prolonged excessive indulgence, in activities or hobbies breem - Pertaining to a female pig who wants to mate breve - The small curve above a vowel which symbolizes a short sound breviloquent - Speaking briefly about a subject brevirostrate - Having a short nose brimborion - Something which is useless or nonsensical bromatology - A discourse on food bromidrosiphobia - A fear of body odour or sweat bronteum - A device used in theater or movies to create thunder

- brontide - The low rumbling of distant thunder brantomancy - Divination by or magic involving thunder brontophobia - The fear of thunder brump - To collect branches which have fallen off of trees bruxomania - The compulsive grinding of one's teeth bubulcitate - To heard cattle or to wail like a cow buccula - A double chin bucculent - Having a wide or large mouth buchette - A piece of firewood buchettier - A person who chops and carries firewood buffarilla - An extremely ugly young woman bufoniform - Like a toad burghbote - Donations made to repair a castle, or to build a castle burke - A slang term for a murder which leaves the body intact, after William Burke who ran a business murdering people and selling the bodies to medical schools.
burladero - The wooden barrier in a bullring used for protection butyraceous - Resembling butter byrthynsak - 1. The theft of a calf or a sheep byrthynsak - 2. Stealing as much as one can carry

C

- cacestogenous - Caused by a poor home life cacestogenous - Caused by an unfavourable home life cachinnation - Loud or hysterical laughter cacodaemonomania - Possessed by the devil cacoepy - The incorrect pronunciation of a word cacoethes - A bad habit or insatiable urge cacogen - An antisocial person cacohydrophobia - The fear of sewer water cacophonophilist - One who loves harsh sounds cacospectomania - The obsession of staring at something which is repulsive caesious - A pale blue-grey color cagamosis - An unhappy marriage cagophilist - A collector of keys cainophobia - A fear of anything new cainotophobia - See cainophobia caitiff - A despicable or cowardly person calamistration - The act of curling hair callet - A drab untidy woman calligyniaphobia - The fear of beautiful women calliopean - Piercingly loud or shrill, often used to describe a voice callipygian - Having a beautiful rear end callipygous - Having a beautiful rear end callithumpian - The sounds of a big parade, usually accompanied by horns and noise makers callow - Not having the experience and sophistication expected of an adult, or of one in a responsible position calypso - A fashion in which women tie a knot in their shirt and exposes her waist

camelopard - A mythical beast with a camel father and a leopard as a mother.

cameralistics - The science of managing public finances campanology - The study of bells or of bell ringing cancatervate - To heap up into a pile canoodle - To kiss and cuddle in an affectionate manner cantabank - A second rate singer cantle - A piece or a fragment of a larger object caparison - Originally the ornamental decorations on a horse, now used to refer to any fancy clothing capernoited - Slightly intoxicated or tipsy caphar - Money paid by merchants for protection, originally while traveling in the Middle East capilotade - A quickly put together story or excuse capnomancy - Divination by smoke carapace - The shell of an animal such as a turtle or armadillo carcinomatophobia - See carcinophobia carcinomorphic - Resembling a crab carcinophobia - A fear of cancer carfumish - To dissipate a foul smell carker - A mischievous child or brat carnophobia - A fear of meat carphologia - See floccillation cartomancy - Magic using cards or prophecy using cards cartomaniac - A collector of maps caryatid - A female sculpture which is used as a pillar castaneous - Chestnut coloured casuist - A sophist who insists on debating the smallest details catagelophobia - A fear of ridicule cataglottism - The act of sticking out one's tongue while kissing catapedamania - The obsession with jumping from high places catapedaphobia - A fear of jumping from a high (or low) place cathartic - Something which is used to clean one's bowels cathisophobia - A fear of sitting catholicon - A remedy for all ailments, or a miracle cure-all catholicum - A medicine which can cure everything catoptomancy - Divination using a mirror or several mirrors catoptromancy - Divination based on how a face appears when viewed in a mirror underwater catoptrophobia - A fear of mirrors causeuse - A sofa built for two people cebocephalic - Having a monkey's head or brain ceilidh - 1. A private conversation or visit ceilidh - 2. An evening of musical entertainment celation - The act of hiding a pregnancy celibataire - A bachelor cenacle - The large room in which the last supper took place cenatory - Pertaining to dinner or supper ceneromancy - Divination using ashes cenogamy - Communal marriage cephalalgic - Any form of headache remedy cephaleonomancy - Telling the future by examining the boiled head of an ass cephalomancy - Divination by boiling a head, usually that of a donkey ceraunomancy - Divination by or magic using thunderbolts cercopithecian - Pertaining to monkeys cerebrophobia - A fear of going insane because of a disease cerulean - A light blue or sky blue colour cervine - Pertaining to deer cervisial - Relating to beer chaetophobia - A fear of hair chafferer - A vendor who enjoys talking while making a sale chalcenterous - Having bowels of brass chamade - A signal inviting discussion or negotiations chankings - Pieces of food which are rejected from what is chewed. (spat out) charette - an intensive effort to complete something before the deadline

Chargoggagogmanchauggagoggchaubunagungamaugg - A Native American lake name meaning "you fish on your side, I fish on my side and no one fishes in the middle"

charientism - An artfully veiled insult chaston - The part of a ring which holds a gem or diamond chavish - The sound of many birds chirping together, or many people chatting at once cheiloproclitic - Being attracted to a person's lips

- cheimaphobia - A fear of coldness or being cold
- cheimatophobia - See cheimaphobia
- chelonian - Like a turtle
- cherophobia - A fear of merriment
- chessom - Soil which is free of sand and stones
- chichevache - In French myth, a giant cow that eats virtuous women
- chiliad - A period of one thousand years
- chiliasm - The doctrine that Christ will return and reign for a thousand years
- chilihedron - A solid with 1000 equal sides
- chionophobia - A fear of snow
- chirocracy - The state of being ruled by force (literally by a strong hand)
- chirognomy - See chiromancy
- chirogymnast - A device used to exercise only the fingers, especially for pianists
- chiromancy - Foretelling the future by studying a person's hand
- chirotonsor - An alternate title for a barber
- chirotony - A vote which is taken by a show of hands
- cholangiocholecystocholechoectomy - The surgical removal of the hepatic duct, common duct, and gall bladder
- choller - A sagging double chin
- choregus - The financial backer in ancient Greece, usually of a play
- chorizontist - One who believes that the Illiad and the Odyssey were written by different authors
- chorophobia - A fear of dancing
- chorophobia - Fear of dancing
- chrematistic - Pertaining to business or the pursuit of wealth
- chrematophobia - A fear of money
- chrematophobia - The fear of wealth
- chrestomathic - Devoted to academic pursuits or to learning in general
- chrisom - A child who dies before being baptised
- chromatophobia - See chromophobia
- chromophobia - A fear of colours
- chromotocracy - A government dominated by one race
- chronomancy - Divining the best time for certain events
- chronophobia - The fear of time
- chryselephantine - Made of or decorated with gold and ivory
- chrysocracy - Rulership by the wealthy (literally a government by gold) chrysology - The study of production and value of precious metals chrysophobia - A fear of gold chthonic - Pertaining to the underworld or Hell cibophobia - A fear of food cicisbeo - The man with whom a women is having an affair cingulomania - A desire to hold someone in your arms circumlocution - An overly complicated means of expression clapperclaw - To berate or scold, or the person doing the scolding clapperdudgeon - A beggar whose parents were beggars clawscrunt - An old tree used as a scratching post, usually by cattle cleidomancy - Divination using a key cleisiophobia - A fear of enclosed spaces clepsammia - An "hourglass" which measures a period of time other than an hour cleptobiosis - The act of plundering food cleptophobia - The fear of thieves or of becoming a thief clerisy - The wise and intelligent upper class cleromancy - Divination involving dice climacophobia - The fear of falling downstairs clinomania - An excessive desire to remain in bed clinophobia - A fear of going to bed clithrophobia - A fear of enclosed spaces cloffin - To sit idly by a fire cnidophobia - A fear of insect stings cnidosiphobia - A fear of itching cockalorum - A person who thinks they are bigger than they are coenesthesia - An awareness of one's body and overall health cognomen - A surname or family name coimetrophobia - See koimetrophobia collation - A light informal meal collieshangie - An uproar or a quarrel colophon - The inscription or notes in the back of a book that give details of the publisher or author colporteur - A book peddler, particularly religious books colposinquantonia - Estimating a woman's beauty based on her chest comestion - A devouring by fire comiconomenclaturist - One who collects funny names comprachico - A person who buys and sells children after deforming them comprivigni - The relation of a child to its step-siblings conchologist - A collector of shells conchomancy - Divination using shells concilliabule - A secret meeting of people who are hatching a plot concinuous - Pertaining to something elegant and interesting concionative - Pertaining to public speaking condign - Appropriate or deserved, especially in reference to a punishment conflate - To meld or merge together conskite - To cause a foul smell, particularly when afraid consuetudinary - A guide to local customs and traditions, or a religious manual conventicle - A secret or unlawful religious assembly coprophagan - A beetle that lives in dung coprophagous - One who eats excrement coprophobia - A fear of excrement coprostitis - A fear of constipation coriaceous - 1. Leatherlike, particularly pertaining to skin coriaceous - 2. To be tough and leathery, (such as over tanned skin) corrade - To gather from various sources corsned - A medieval trial in which the accused had to swallow consecrated bread cosherer - Someone who eats at the expense of others, especially relatives coshering - 1. The act of feasting coshering - 2. The privilege of landlords (or relatives) to invite themselves to live with their tenants cosmolatry - The worship of nature cosmopoeitic - An adjective referring to world creating cosmothetic - A philosophy which assumes the existence of an external world without proof costermonger - A seller of fruits, vegetables, and other food, especially from a street cart cotquean - A man who does what is traditionally women's work coulrophobia - The fear of clowns couth - To comfort by giving refreshments and warmth crambazzle - A worn out old man crantara - A burnt piece of wood dipped in blood and taken from clan to clan as a signal crapulent - 1. Illness caused by overeating crapulent - 2. Eating and drink too much cremnophobia - A fear of cliffs or precipices cremnophobia - A fear of precipices creophagous - Pertaining to something or someone which eats meat crepitation - The crackling and popping sound accompanying a wood fire crepuscle - The fading light at the end of the day, also known as twilight cretaceous - Chalky or grayish white cribble - To push something through a sieve crissum - A general term for the anus of a bird crithomancy - Divination by spreading flour or dough over a sacrificed animal criticasters - Third rate mean spirited critics cromnyomancy - Magic or divination using an onion croodle - Too coo like a dove croosle - A low whimper, such as produced by infants crose - To whine empathetically with someone who is in pain crozier - The ceremonial staff of bishops or abbots crotaline - Resembling a rattlesnake cruciverbalist - Someone who loves doing crossword puzzles crumenically - Related to money crurophilous - Pertaining to one who likes legs cryophobia - A fear of ice or frost cryptaesthesia - Any form of extrasensory perception cryptarchy - A government which is run secretly cucurbitaceous - resembling a cucumber or a squash culacino - The mark left on the table by a moist glass culch - Rubbage and refuse of every form culliage - The right of a lord to spend the first night with his subjects new bride cullion - A rude, mean-spirited person cultrivorous - Pertaining to actual or illusory knife swallowing cummock - A staff with a crooked end on it cunctipotent - Being all powerfull, or omnipotent cuniculous - Filled with rabbits curculionidous - Pertaining to weevils curglaff - The shock felt when entering cold water curpin - A bird's back end cutre - Describing something which is either in poor taste, ugly, or just foreign

cyesolagnia - Being attracted to pregnant women cymbocephalic - Having a head shaped like a boat cymophobia - The fear of waves cynanthropy - The delusion that one is a dog cynocephalous - Having the face or head of a dog cynophobia - A fear of dogs cyprianophobia - The fear of prostitutes cypridophobia - The fear of prostitutes cypripareuniaphile - A person who loves prostitutes cytology - The study of cells or the interaction of cells czarevna - The proper title for the daughter of a czar

D

dactylioglyph - The mark or engraving in a ring dactyliography - 1. The art of engraving rings dactyliography - 2. Writing or painting with one's fingers dactyliology - The study of finger rings dactylion - The tip of the middle finger dactylonomy - Counting using one's fingers daedalian - Ingenious and cunningly designed darraign - To prepare for combat, or decide by combat davering - Walking or moving in a dazed manner deasil - To move in a clockwise direction decidophobia - A fear of making decisions decollate - To remove someone's head, or to decapitate someone decubitis - One's position or posture while sleeping deesis - A speech or request made to a supreme being defalcation - Misappropriation of funds by the person or group entrusted with them defecalgophobia - A fear of defecation defenestrate - To throw out of a window deiparous - Giving birth to a god or a goddess deipnophobia - A fear of dinner conversation deipnosophy - Learned conversation conducted while dining deisidaimonia - The fear of supernatural powers dejerate - To take a solemn oath delassation - The state of being tired and fatigued deliciate - To indulge or to make oneself happy delitescence - To be hidden or concealed deltiologist - A collector of picture postcards demegoric - Relating to public speaking dementophobia - A fear of insanity or going insane demitoilet - A style of elaborate but not formal dress demiurge - The creator of a world, whether real or mythical demonocracy - Rulership by demons demonomancy - Divination by demons demonophobia - A fear of demons demonurgist - One who uses demons to assist in casting magics demophobia - A fear of crowds or people dendranthropology - A discipline which studies the theory that man came from trees dendrochronology - The study of growth rings in logs to determine climates dendrology - The study of trees dendrophillia - The love of trees dendrophobia - The fear of trees dentiloquent - Pertaining to someone who talks through their teeth deoppilate - To remove an obstruction deorsumversion - A turning down deosculation - The act of kissing dephlegmate - To distill something, such as alcohol dephlogisticate - To make something fireproof deracinate - 1. To pull out by the roots deracinate - 2. To remove someone or something from their natural or usual environment dermatoglyphics - The study of skin patterns, such as finger prints dermatopathophobia - A fear of skin diseases dermatophobia - A fear of skin destitute - To squeak like a rat deturpate - To defile or disfigure deuterogamist - A widow who chooses to remarry dextrophobia - A fear of the right or things to the right dextrosinistral - A left handed person who is trained to use their right hand dghaisa - A small boat used in Malta, similar to a gondola dharna - A method of collecting a debt in which the person who is owed money sits on the debtors doorstep until payment is made, or the debtor starves to death diablerist - One who draws or paints devils diabolarchy - Rulership by the devil diacritics - The marks used in dictionaries to symbolize pronunciation diamerismapygian - one with flattened buttocks diamerismapygianitis - inflammation from flattening of the buttocks usually caused by long periods of sitting didaskaleinophobia - A fear of school didine - Resembling a dodo bird dignotion - Any distinguishing mark or feature dikephobia - A fear of justice dilluing - The process of sorting metal from ore using a hand sieve dinmont - A castrated ram between one and two years old dinophobia - A fear of dizziness diophysitic - Having two separate personalities diplasiasmus - The incorrect doubling of a letter when spelling a word dippoldism - The act of beating or whipping school children dipsomanophobia - A fear of drinking alcohol dipsophobia - A fear of drinking alcohol discerp - To tear to shreds discophoran - Like a jellyfish dishabillophobia - The fear of undressing or undressing in front of someone dithyramb - A hymn or poem to honor Bacchus ditokous - Producing twins diurnation - To sleep during the day divigate - To stray, as in the opposite of navigate divitiphobia - The fear of wealth doctiloquent - Talking about a subject which you have studied and know a lot about dolabriform - Shaped like the head of an ax doles - The two short grips on the handle of a scythe dolichocephalic - Having a head that is longer than it is wide dolichprosopic - Having an unusually long face dolorifuge - Something that cures grief domatologist - A professional housekeeper domatophobia - A fear of houses or being stuck in a house dommerer - A beggar who fakes being deaf and mute dompteuse - A woman who trains animals doraphobia - A fear of fur or animal skins dorsodynia - A pain in the back dowfart - A stupid dull person doyen - The eldest member of a group doytin - To walk about stupidly drachenfutter - An offering made by a husband to appease an angry wife drail - A long trailing headdress drailing - Send e-mail messages while drunk drapetomania - An overwhelming urge to run away from home dratchell - A slovenly, lazy woman drawcansir - A person who kills both friend and foe, or who destroys his own cause while fighting his opponents drazel - An immoral woman dringle - Somebody who likes to waste time drintling - The clucking noise made by turkeys dririmancy - Divination by dripping blood drizzen - A mournful wail, usually by a lazy person forced to work drogulus - Something which cannot be verified, due to its lack of physical form or effects dromaeognathous - Having the palate of an emu dromophobia - The fear of streets or crossing the street droud - An oafish woman druxy - Something which looks good on the outside, but is actually rotten inside dudman - A scarecrow made of old cloths duffie - The practice of laying a bottle on its side for a long time to get out the last drops dulocracy - A government formed of privileged slaves dulosis - The enslavement of ants by other ants dulotic - A situation where one insignificant entity enslaves or rules another dunnage - 1. The loose stuffing used to keep cargo from getting wet or from moving dunnage - 2. The material placed in boxes to protect the contents from damage dunnage - 3. Any form of luggage or baggage dwaible - being unstable dwale - To wander about deliriously dwizzen - To shrivel up like old fruit, especially applied to old people dysania - The state of having a rough time waking up in the morning dysepulotic - Not healing quickly or easily dysesthesia - An impairment of the senses, especially the sense of touch dyslogistic - Expressing disapproval dysmorphophobia - A fear of being deformed dysnomy - The creation of flawed laws which cause more problems dysphoria - An unwell feeling dysteleologist - One who believes in the purposeless of nature dysteleology - The study of the organs of plants or animals while denying that they are useful dystopia - A society in which the conditions are horrid and people miserable. Also the opposite of utopia dystychiphobia - A fear of accidents

dyvors - People or businesses who have gone bankrupt or are disreputable

E

- earrent - The damage or removal of an ear in lieu of payment on a debt or rent
- eblandish - To get by coaxing or by flattery
- eccaleobion - Something which gives life or brings alive
- eccedentesiast - A person who fakes a smile, such as on television
- ecclesiarchy - Rulership by the church
- ecclesioclastic - Disruptive or destructive to the church
- ecclesiolatry - Excessive devotion to one's church
- ecclesiophobia - A fear of churches
- ecdysiophile - A person who likes to visit strip joints or watch people strip
- echinoproctous - Having a spiny or prickly rump (like a porcupine)
- echopraxia - The act of imitating others for no reason
- ecophobia - A fear of one's home
- ectomorphic - Being slender and thin
- edacious - voracious and devouring
- edentate - Having no teeth
- effulgent - Shining or resplendent
- after - A thief who robs theater patrons during a show
- eidolism - The belief in ghosts and spirits
- eisegesis - A faulty interpretation of a text caused by reading in one's own ideas
- eisoptrophobia - A fear of mirrors
- electrophobia - A fear of electricity
- eleutherophillist - Someone who advocates free love
- eleutherophobia - A fear of freedom
- elurophobia - A fear of cats
- emacity - An urge to buy or to spend money
- emetophobia - The fear of vomiting emmetropia - The medical condition of having perfect eyesight empleomania - An insatiable urge to hold public office emunction - The act of removing obstructions from or cleaning bodily passages (such as picking ones nose) encephalasthenia - A form of mental distress caused by emotional stress enchorial - Belonging to a particular country endomorph - Being short but powerful energumenist - 1. One who is possessed by demons energumenist - 2. One who is passionate about their cause enetophobia - A fear of pins and needles engastration - The act of stuffing one bird into another enigmatology - The study and construction of puzzles enissophobia - See enosiophobia enneagon - A figure which has nine angles enochlophobia - A fear of crowds enoptromancy - Divination using a mirror enoptrophobia - A fear of mirrors enosiophobia - The fear that one has committed an unpardonable sin entheate - Divinely inspired or possessed by a god entomophobia - A fear of insects entredentolignumologist - One who collects toothpick boxes eosophobia - A fear of the dawn epagomenic - Days which are omitted from a calendar, either in ancient times or with modern obscure holidays ephemeromorph - Any form of life too low to be classified as animal or vegetable ephorize - To have a controlling influence over epicaricacy - The joy that results from others misfortune epigamic - A trait or property which attracts a mate, such as antlers or plumage epincion - A victory song or anthem epirot - A person who lives far away from the coast episcopicide - The act of killing a bishop epistaxiophobia - A fear of nose bleeds epithymy - A lustful desire epizootic - Any disease which affects many different animals eponym - A name that has become a word epulose - An excessive feast equinophobia - A fear of horses eremikophobia - A fear of sand or deserts eremology - The study of deserts eremophobia - A fear of being alone eremophobia - The fear of stillness ereuthrophia - See Erythrophia ergasophobia - The fear of work ergomaniac - One who is obsessed with working ergophile - One who loves working ergophobia - The fear of work eroteme - The symbol used in writing known as a question mark erotographophobia - The fear of writing love letters erythrophia - A fear of blushing eschatological - Pertaining to the ultimate fate of humanity or the planet escutcheon - A decorative metal plates around doorknobs or locks esquivalence - 1. The intentional abandonment of one's official duties esquivalence - 2. An unwillingness to perform the job one has been assigned esquivalence - 3. The irresponsible addition of fake words into dictionaries, as was originally done with this word estafette - A courier who rides on a horse estiferous - Pertaining to something which produces heat estivation - To go away somewhere for the summer estrapade - A horse's attempt to remove their rider ethnocracy - Rulership by a specific race ethnomethodology - The study of social customs and rules ethnomusicology - The study of folk music eudemonics - The study or the science of happiness eulogistic - Expressing approval eumourous - Happiness due to being honest and wholesome eunomy - The enactment of good laws that help people euonym - A good name euphobia - A fear of good news eupsyhics - Good education or teaching eustress - 1. Stress that incites one to action or motivates, as in sports eustress - 2. Stress related to a happy event, such as childbirth or wedding eutectic - Easily melted or fused, especially at low temperatures euterpean - Related to music exclaustration - The act of leaving or being expelled from a religious retreat exennium - A gift given at New Years exigent - Requiring immediate attention exiguous - Sparse or meagre eximious - Choice, select or excellent exonumist - One who collects things which resemble coins but are not coins exophagy - The tradition among cannibals that they may not eat one from their own tribe explaterate - To talk continuously without stop exsibilation - The collective hisses of a disapproving audience exsufflicate - Something which is silly or trifling extispex - A person who predicts the future using entrails extispicy - Divination using entrails

F

- fabulosity - 1. The state of being fabulous fabulosity - 2. The state of telling lies faffle - Work which takes a long time and produces sub-standard results faleste - A form of capital punishment in which the victim is tied up on the beach and allowed to be pulled out by the tide famulus - An assistant to a scholar or magician fangast - A women who is eligible for marriage farctate - The state of being stuffed with food (overeating) fardel - A little bundle or a sack fashimite - Someone who is a slave to fashion favillous - Resembling ashes feague - The act of putting ginger (or a live eel) in a horse's behind to make him carry his tail properly feaque - A dirty, lazy man feazings - The frayed and unraveled ends of a rope febriphobia - A fear of fever feff - Any bad smell, though usually applied to a child breaking wind felinophobia - A fear of cats felly - The outer wooden rim of a wheel feriae - Days in the ancient roman culture in which all people, including slaves, got a holiday feriation - Taking time off of one's work to relax or to travel ferrule - 1. The metal tip on an umbrella ferrule - 2. The threaded knob that holds a lampshade in place ferrule - 3. A protective metal cap on the end of a cane or a tool handle festinate - To walk fast or to move rapidly festucine - Being the colour of straw or hay fettler - A person skilled at repairing tools or machinery fewterer - A keeper of dogs or manager of a kennel fiant - To cast off excrement fibriophobia - See febriphobia fideism - Reliance upon one's religion instead or reason for beliefs and truths fidimplicitary - A person who has implicit faith filopietistic - The practice of worshipping one's ancestors filipendulous - Suspended by a single thread fimicoloud - Living in a dung heap finifugal - Shunning the end of something fissilingual - Having a forked tongue fistiana - Related to fists or boxing fittie-lan - The near horse of the hindmost pair pulling a plough flabuginous - Something which is deceptive or fraudulent flamfoo - A woman in gaudy clothes who thinks she is fashionable flaneur - A man who is always idle, or refuses to work flaneusse - A woman who refuses to work flarting - To mock or insult flaskisable - Able to be bent flattybouch - A person who spends the summer travelling and living in a van flavescent - Yellowish or turning yellow fletcherize - To chew each piece of food at least thirty times flexiloquent - Pertaining to someone who speaks ambiguously floccillation - The delirious picking at bedclothes by a sick person floccinaucinihilipilification - The categorizing of something that is useless or trivial flosculous - Pertaining to or resembling flowers flothery - Being slovenly while trying to appear classy and proper fluctisonant - Having the sound of rolling waves flychter - To run with outstretched arms, such as a child does flyndrig - An impudent or deceiving woman foison - A very bountiful harvest fomentation - The application of warm substances to diseased parts foof - To howl and whine like a wounded dog formication - The sensation of bugs crawling over one's body fossick - To search for gold in abandoned claims or to rummage around for anything valuable foudroyant - Having a stunning or dazzling effect franion - A pleasure seeker or hedonist fremescence - The grumbling sound of an unhappy mob of people friendorhobia - A fear of forgetting a password frigoric - The mythical substance believed to cause or transmit cold frippery - A store which sells old clothing frisson - A shudder of excitement that courses through the body fritinancy - The chirping or croaking sound of insects frottage - 1. Artwork created by rubbing charcoal over paper placed on a rough surface frottage - 2. The act of rubbing against a clothed person in public, for the purpose of gratification frustling - The shaking and showing of feathers by birds, or the strutting around of someone with fancy clothing frustraneous - unprofitable and completely useless fruzz - To rub hair the wrong way, as when petting a dog from tail to head fucoid - Resembling sea weed fudgeon - A fussy person fulgurate - To suddenly flash, such as lightning fuliginous - Pertaining to something which is sooty fulmination - A loud and violent explosion, either literally or figuratively fumifugist - Something or someone which expels smoke funambulist - A tight rope walker fungy - A type of deep dish blueberry pie funkify - To run away in fear furciferous - Pertaining to a rascal or a rascal's behaviour furfuraceous - Covered with scales or dandruff flakes furr-ahin - The hindmost horse on the right pulling a plough fuscoferuginous - Having a dark rusty colour fustilug - A fat, clumsy, lazy, filthy slob fyerk - To flick away using one's finger and thumb fysigunkus - A person who lacks curiosity

G

- gaberlunzie - A wandering beggar or a harmless hobo galea - A headache which covers the entire head galeanthropy - The delusion that one is a cat galeophobia - A fear of cats galeophobia - A fear of sharks galligantus - A tall and awkward person gallywow - A man who cannot have children gambrinous - Being full of beer gametophobia - See gamophobia gamin - A homeless boy or street kid gamine - A homeless girl gammerstang - A tall and awkward woman gamomania - An urge to make extravagant wedding proposals gamophobia - A fear of marriage gardyloo - Either dirty water thrown out of a window, or the warning that is yelled out first gargalesthesia - The sensation caused by tickling gastromancy - Divination using a crystal ball gatophobia - See galeophobia gaum - To stare vacantly or handle in a clumsy manner geck - An expression of scorn or contempt gelophobia - A fear of laughter geloscopy - Magic or fortunetelling based on laughter genethliacon - A poem which is written for someone's birthday geniophobia - A fear of chins genizah - A repository for damage or banned books genuphobia - A fear of knees genyplasty - Surgery to reconstruct the cheek geograffy - A drink of sailors, made by soaking burnt bread or biscuits in water geophagy - The act of eating dirt or clay gephyrophobia - the fear of crossing bridges. gerasophobia - A fear of old age or of growing old gerontocomium - An institution designed to take care of the elderly gerontocracy - A government of old people (often the old boys network) gerontophilia - The love of the elderly gerontophobia - A fear of old age or of growing old geumaphobia - The fear of taste geumatophobia - See geumaphobia gezellig - The comfortable feeling that one has when surrounded by friends gigantomachize - To be at war with one's superiors gigantomachy - A war between giants gigmania - The smug obsession with attaining middle class respectability gilipollas - Describing a person who is acting like a complete idiot girouettism - Altering one's opinions to match public trends glabrous - Having no hair glaikery - Silly or foolish behaviour glaucous - A yellowish green or sea-green color glaums - An instrument used to geld horses gleed - A hot ember or coal gleimous - Filled with phlegm and mucus gliriform - Resembling a rodent globaphobia - The fear of balloons glossophobia - The fear of speaking, especially in public gloze - An explanatory note in the margin of a book gnap - To criticize in a biting or snapping way gork - A patient with unknown ailment. (Short for God only really knows) gormandizer - One who eats to excess gracile - Graceful and slender graminivorous - Eating grass grammaticaster - A person who is pedantic regarding proper grammar grandgousier - One who will eat as much as possible of anything grapholagnia - The urge to stare at obscene pictures graphophobia - The fear of writing or of the written word graptomancy - Divination using hand writing graupel - Snow pellets or a soft form of hail gressible - Able to walk griffonage - Illegible or sloppy hand writing grimthorpe - To badly remodel a building ignoring its character or history grinagog - a person with a big stupid grin groak - To stare at someone who is eating in hopes of getting food gubbertushed - Having buck teeth gubernator - A powerful man in government gubernatrix - A powerful woman in government gudgeons - The slots on a hinge which hold the pin in place guerdon - A reward or payment guidfather - Another name for one's father in law gulosity - Excessive appetite or greed guttersnipe - A member of the lowest class in society or a street person gymnogynomania - The urge to spy on people when they are undressing gymnophobia - A fear of nudity gymnophilia - The sensation that someone is mentally undressing you gynarchy - Rulership by women gynecocracy - A government consisting of women gynophobia - The fear of women gynocracy - See gynecocracy gynonudomania - The urge to rip off a woman's clothing gynophobia - See gynephobia gynotikolobomassophilia - A proclivity for nibbling on women's earlobes gyromancy - Divination involving walking in a circle until you fall down gyrovague - A monk who begs and sponges off of other monks gyve - A shackle, usually applied to the leg, or the act of shackling someone

H

- hadeharia - The practice of constantly using the word "Hell" in speaking
- haggersnash - A person who is full of spite
- hagiarchy - A government of saints
- hagiocracy - Rulership by saints
- hagiography - A biography of a saint, or one written in a worshipping tone
- hagiolatry - The worship of saints
- haimsucken - The crime of beating a person in their own home
- haingle - To amble along in a feeble and listless manner
- hajj - A pilgrimage to Mecca
- halakah - The set of laws supporting Jewish scriptures
- halidom - Anything considered holy or sacred
- halieutic - Of or about fishing
- haliography - A description of the sea
- halomancy - Divination or magic using salt
- hamartiologist - An expert on the subject of sin
- hamartithia - Being likely to make a mistake
- hamartophobia - A fear of sin or of sinning
- hamiform - Shaped like a hook
- hamirostrate - Having a hooked beak
- haphophobia - See aphephobia
- haptophobia - See aphephobia
- haptodysphoria - A unpleasant feeling caused by handling any fuzzy surface
- harengiform - Shaped like a herring
- harpactophage - A predator which feeds on insects
- harpaxophobia - The fear of thieves or of becoming a thief
- harridan - A disreputable and violent woman
- haruspex - A person who predicts the future using entrails haruspication - Divination using entrails haruspicy - See haruspication hasenpfeffer - A well seasoned rabbit stew haspenald - A teenage boy who is tall, or who has suddenly grown hastilude - A tournament of fighting with spears havelock - The cloth that hangs from the back of a hat to protect the wearer's neck hawsehole - The hole on a ship through which the anchor is lowered haytiste - One who spends their days leaning on walls, and doing nothing heautontimorumenos - 1. A form of masochism heautontimorumenos - 2. A masochist hebdomadal - Occuring once each week hebephobia - The fear of young people hebesphalmology - The study of juvenile delinquency hecatomb - A religious sacrifice of 100 animals, or any mass slaughter hecatompedon - Any building which is either 100 feet long or wide hederaceous - Pertaining to ivy hederate - To decorate with ivy hednon - A present given to someone at their wedding hedonophobia - A fear of pleasure heliolater - A sun worshipper heliophobia - The fear of the Sun heliotropism - The tendency of plants to turn towards the sun Hellenologophobia - A fear of Greek terms or complex terminology hellenomania - The obsession with using either foreign or obscure wording helminthophobia - The fear of becoming infested with worms helminthous - Infested with intestinal worms hemaphobia - See Hematophobia hematomancy - Divination using blood hematophagous - One who drinks blood hematophobia - A fear of blood or the sight of blood hemeralopia - Only being able to see at night hemeraphonia - Able to speak only at night hemophobia - See Hematophobia heptagamous - Having seven wives or seven husbands heptamerous - Having seven parts or seven members heresyphobia - A fear of heresy hermeneutics - Interpretations of the Bible herpetiform - Resembling a reptile herpetophobia - A fear of reptiles heterarchy - A government of strangers or foreigners heterography - The art of making spelling mistakes heterophemist - One who does not say what they really mean heteropraxy - Pertaining to people who do not follow the teachings of their religion hibernicism - An Irish trait or custom hierocracy - Rulership by the church or by church officials hierofastidia - A dislike of all holy objects hieromachy - A war between members of the clergy hieromancy - Divination using entrails hierophobia - A fear of the clergy or of holy people hieroscopy - Divination using entrails higgler - A salesperson who insists on a certain price hippanthropy - The delusion that one is a horse hippobosca - A blood sucking fly hippomancy - Divination by horses, or by the neighing of horses hippophobia - A fear of horses hippotomonstrosesquipedalian - Pertaining to extremely long words hirci - Armpit hair hircine - Resembling or smelling like a goat hirriant - A heavy trilling sound, such as a cat purring hirsutophilia - Being attracted to hairy men hirudinoid - Like a leech hispid - Having stubbly or being unshaven historiography - The study of history through writing styles hodograph - A device for measuring the paces of a horse hodophobia - The fear of travelling hogra - A feeling of rage or depression that results from knowing that the next day will be no better than today holagogue - Any drug which relieves depression homichlophobia - A fear of fog homilophobia - A fear of sermons hominist - One who advocates equal rights for men honorificabilitudinitatibus - With honorableness (a nonsense word from medieval literature) hordarian - The treasurer of a monastery or someone who controls a lot of money

hormephobia - A fear of shock horology - The science of measuring time or making time pieces horripilate - To get goose bumps howdah - The riding seat on the back of an elephant hoxter - The inside pocket on a suit or coat huchet - A huntsmen's horn huderon - An adjective meaning 'lazy' humicubate - To lie still, as in some forms of prayer humuhumunukunukuapuaa - A small Hawaiian fish hyalophobia - A fear of glass hydraglyphobia - A fear of mercurial medicines hydromancy - Divination by water of magic involving water hydrophobia - The fear of water hydrophobophobia - A fear of rabies hydrophobophobia - The fear of hydrophobia hyetophobia - A fear of rain hygrophobia - A fear of dampness hygrophobia - A fear of liquids hylephobia - A fear of epilepsy hylephobia - A fear of materialism hylophobia - A fear of forests hylotheism - The belief that god and the universe are the same thing hylozoism - The belief that matter has life and that life is a property of matter hypégiaphobia - See hypenkyophobia hypenkyophobia - A fear of responsibility hyperhedonia - Excessive pleasure caused by boring tasks hypermnesia - Having an exceptional memory hyperprosexia - Excessive attention to something hyperthelmalgesia - An increased sensitivity to heat hypnerotomachia - The struggle to decide between sleeping and making love hypnomancy - Divination by hypnosis hypnophobia - A fear of sleeping hypnopompic - the fuzzy state between being awake and asleep hypobulia - Trouble making up one's mind hypophobia - A fear of not being afraid hyposmia - A disorder in which one has no sense of smell hypselotimophobia - A fear of high prices hypsiophobia - A fear of heights or high places

I

iatraliptic - Pertaining to the curing of diseases with lotions and creams iatrapistia - A lack of faith in the medical system iatrogenic - Pertaining to medical problems caused by a doctor's treatment iatromathematique - A doctor who cures patients in a very mathematical way iatrophobia - A fear of going to the doctor ichneutic - Related to the art of tracking ichnography - A map or floor plan which is drawn to scale ichnology - The study of fossilized footprints ichnomancy - Divination using footprints ichoglan - A young servant, usually serving a Sultan ichor - The blood of a god ichthyomancy - Divination or magic involving fish icker - A single ear of corn iconomancy - Divination using icons iconomicar - A person who writes about agriculture and farming icterical - Tainted with a slightly yellow coloring ichthyophobia - A fear of fish idolomancy - Divination using idols ignipotent - Having control of or power over fire illecebrous - Attractive and alluring illeism - The practice of referring to oneself as "he" or "she", or by one's name illyngophobia - The fear of vertigo ilunga - A person who can forgive two abuses, but never a third offence ilunga - A word from the Tshiluba language meaning a person who will forgive you once, maybe twice, but never a third time imberbic - Having no beard imbost - Foam created in the mouth, usually with sick animals imbriferous - rain carrying, such as clouds immerd - To cover or submerge in manure imparidigitate - Having an odd number of toes or fingers on each limb impecunious - Having little or no money impigrous - Being quick and efficient impluvius - Soaked with rain inaniloquent - Speaking foolishly or saying silly things incalescence - Growing warm and lusty with love incicurable - Being untamable incontunded - Not bruised or damaged incunabula - A book which was printed before 1500 AD, in the dawn of publishing infelicific - An adjective meaning 'to make unhappy' infracaninophile - One who supports or defends the underdog infrendiate - To gnash one's teeth in anger infucate - To apply makeup infucation - The art of painting or staining, especially face painting inhebetate - To make something interesting into something dull and boring inhume - To bury a person in a grave or tomb inlapidate - To petrify an object inparlibidinous - Pertaining to the love of one person for another who does not love them interamnian - Being between rivers interbastation - A mismatched patchwork intercalary - Any day, week, or month which has been inserted into a calendar, such as in a leap year intercalation - The insertion of an extra day, week, or month into a calendar interfenestration - 1. The space between two windows interfenestration - 2. The art of placing windows intrapreneur - A company employee who is not bound by rules or policies and who is free to refine products iophobia - 1. A fear of poison or being poisoned iophobia - 2. A fear of rust ipsedixitism - The practice of dogmatic assertion irenology - The study of peace isangelous - As good as angels, or equal to the angels isocracy - A government in which everyone has equal power isopiestic - Having equal pressure isopterophobia - The fear of termites itaiitai - A disease caused by cadmium entering the body iteroparous - Describing an organism which has multiple children or multiple sets of children izles - Any sparks or embers which rise from a chimney

J

- jactancy - The act of boasting or bragging jactitate - To toss and turn or to toss back and forth jactitation - The act of boasting or bragging jaculable - Appropriate for throwing jaculate - To throw or to hurl jaculiferous - Having a spine resembling a row of darts jarble - To smear with grime and mud jauk - To dally or to trifle, or to be slow in performing tasks jecoral - Pertaining to the liver jeeter - A rude, uncouth slob jehu - An aggressive or enraged driver jejunator - A person who fasts jentacular - Pertaining to breakfast jentation - The first meal of the day, or breakfast jeofail - A costly mistake made by a lawyer, usually in court jerque - To search for smuggled items jettatore - One who brings bad luck, or spreads bad luck jirble - To spill liquid, or to transfer liquid between containers jookerie - Trickery or the act of swindling joola - A suspension bridge built out of ropes jowfair - An event which does not occur after much planning, such as a wedding with no groom jowter - A person who sells fish jubate - Fringed with a mane of long hair jumentous - Smelling like horse urine junta - All the people who are involved in some form of political intrigue

K

kaffiyeh - The cloth head gear worn by many palestinians kainophobia - See cainophobia kainotophobia - See cainophobia kakidrosiphobia - A fear of body odour or sweat kakistocracy - Rulership by the worst leader kakorrhaphiophobia - A fear of failure kalling - Fortunetelling based on what variety of cabbage a blindfolded person picks kalogram - A monogram which uses the persons full name kalokagathia - A nobility and inherent good character kalology - The study of beauty kalopsia - The delusion that things are more beautiful than they really are kamagraphy - The process of making exact copies of paintings kamalayka - A shirt made of seal guts kantele - A five stringed harp from Finland karao - The marriage of a widow to her brother-in-law karmadharaya - A word in which the first half describes the second (such as high-way) karoshi - Death by overworking, or killing oneself because of work related stress katabatic - Relating to a cold downward wind katagelophobia - See catagelophobia katavothron - A chasm created by running water kathenotheism - The belief that there are multiple gods with a single leader kathisophobia - See cathisophobia keb - An ewe which has aborted its lamb kebbie - A Scottish walking stick or cudgel

- keedug - A raincoat made out of an old sack
- keelivine - A pencil which uses lead
- kenophobia - The fear of open spaces
- kepi - The hat worn by members of the french foreign legion
- keraunophobia - The fear of thunderbolts (lightning or thunder and lightning)
- keraunosopia - Divination using thunder
- kerdomeletia - An excessive desire for material wealth
- kerf - The initial cut made in a piece of wood that is used to guide the saw blade
- kevel - To paw the ground and toss one's head like a bull
- kimbly - A gift given to the person who spreads the news of a birth
- kinesipathy - The practice of treating illness with exercise
- kinesophobia - A fear of motion or movement
- kinnikinnik - A mixture of dry leaves, bark, and tobacco used in some smoking pipes
- kirkbuzzer - One who robs churches
- kishen - A measure equal to eight quarts
- kiyoodle - A mangy, worthless dog
- klebenleiben - A pathological reluctance to stop talking about a given subject
- klebenleiben - The reluctance to stop talking about a certain subject
- knackatory - A store which sells knick-knacks
- knaifatic - Describing one who is born to a low class
- knissomancy - Divination using burning incense
- koimetrophobia - A fear of cemeteries
- koinoniphobia - A fear of a room full of people
- kolophon - See colophon
- koniophobia - A fear of dust
- kopophobia - A fear of being mentally or physically exhausted
- korinthenkacker - A person who is obsessed with every trivial detail
- korophilia - Being attracted to young men or boys
- kosmokrator - The ruler of the world
- krobylos - A tuft of hair on top of one's head
- krukolibidinous - The act of staring at someone's crotch
- kurveyor - A travelling merchant who sells dry goods from a cart
- kymatology - The study of waves
- kymophobia - See cymophobia

- kynophobia - See cynophobia kyphophobia - The fear of stooping kyphorrhinos - Having a nose with a bump in it kyphotic - Hump-backed kyriolexy - The use of literal expressions

L

- labeorphilist - A collector of beer bottles
- labrose - Having large or thick lips
- lachanophobia - The fear of vegetables
- laconic - Saying a lot with a few words
- lacustrine - Relating to lakes
- laetificant - An general term for antidepressants
- laliophobia - See lalophobia
- lalochezia - The use of foul or abusive language to relieve stress or ease pain
- lalophobia - The fear of speaking
- lambdacism - The overuse of the letter L in writing or speaking
- langsuir - A female vampire who can disguise herself as an owl to prey on newborn children
- lanigerous - Wool bearing or covered with fine hair
- lant - 1. Stale urine used to protect planted seeds from birds
- lant - 2. A type of diluted urine used to wash clothing or blankets
- Laodicean - Being lax in one's religious beliefs or indifferent to religion
- lapidate - To stone a person to death
- lapidicolous - Living under rocks
- larging - The wasteful spending of money received through an inheritance, loan, or gift
- lateer - A type of candy made by pouring hot syrup into snow
- latitudinarian - A person who tolerates all religions or beliefs
- latrate - To bark like a dog
- latrinalia - Using words that are fit for a restroom wall
- latrinology - The study of writings on restroom walls
- latrocination - Highway robbery or overcharging people
- lavacultophilia - A desire to stare at someone in a bathing suit lazaretto - A hospital dedicated to treating contagious diseases leal - Describing one who is faithful and loyal lebensabschnittsgefahrte - The person who shares your life and your love for a little while before moving on leggiadrous - Graceful and elegant leint - The process of adding urine to beer to give it more flavour leister - A three pronged, barbed spear used for catching fish lepidophobia - A fear of butterflies leptorrhinian - having a long narrow nose lestobiosis - The act of pilfering food lethiferous - Causing death lethologica - The inability to recall a precise word for something leukophobia - The fear of the color white levirate - The marriage of a woman to her husband's brother levophobia - A fear of the left side or things to the left lexiconophilist - A collector of dictionaries and word books lexiphanicism - Showing off by using words lygrophobia - A fear of loud noises lilapsophobia - A fear of hurricanes, cyclones, or tornadoes limacine - Like a slug limbeck - A state in which an individual is exhausted as a result of thinking limerance - The initial thrill of falling in love limicolous - Living in mud or slime limnology - The study of fresh water, such as lakes or ponds limnophobia - A fear of lakes linonophobia - The fear of string lirp - To snap one's fingers lissom - Supple, limber and easy to bend lithomancy - Divination by stones litigaphobia - A fear of being sued or of lawsuits loganamnesia - The obsession with recalling a certain word logastellus - A person whose love of words is greater than their knowledge of words logocracy - Rulership by words logodaedaly - Verbal trickery or legerdemain logogogue - A person who leads others in the use of words or by the use of words logographer - A person who writes speeches or chronicles historical events

- logomachist - A person who engages in a war of words
- logomachize - To engage in a war of words
- logomachy - A war of words or a battle about words
- logomancy - Divination by words or by speech
- logomaniac - A person obsessed with words
- logomaniac - A person who is crazy about words
- logophile - A person who loves words
- logophobia - The fear of words
- logorrhea - Excessive talking (or verbal diarrhea)
- lohock - Medicine which is administered by licking it
- longanimity - The ability to suffer patiently
- longiloquent - Extremely long-winded
- lopadotemachoselachogaleokraniroleipsanodrimhypotrimmatosilphioparaomelitokatake
 - A goulash composed of all the leftovers from the meals of the leftovers from the meals of the last two weeks
- loranthaceous - 1. Related to mistletoe
- loranthaceous - 2. Pertaining to kisses given under odd circumstances
- lorgnette - A pair of glasses mounted on a handle
- lotherwit - A fine which a master may take from someone who sleeps with his servant
- loupe - The small magnifying glass used by jewellers
- lubberland - A mythical paradise reserved for those who are lazy
- lucelence - An adjective meaning 'fine and beautiful'
- lucifugous - An adjective meaning 'avoiding light' or nocturnal
- lucubrador - A person who studies during the night
- ludibrous - Describing one who is often mocked and ridiculed
- lusa - An Indonesian word for the day after tomorrow
- lustration - Ceremonial purification performed before entering a holy place
- lustrum - A span of five years
- lyceum - A public hall used for lectures or music
- lychnobite - A person who works at night and sleeps during the day
- lycophosed - Having keen sight or perfect vision
- lygerastia - The condition of one who is only amorous when the lights are out
- lygophobia - A fear of darkness or of the night
- lyncean - 1. Resembling or pertaining to a lynx
- lyncean - 2. Having exceptional eyesight
- lypothymia - Profound melancholy lystrataphobia - The fear that women will subvert men and take over the world lyssophobia - 1. A fear of going insane lyssophobia - 2. A fear of rabies

M

macellarious - Like a slaughterhouse or butcher shop machiaphobia - The fear of war mackabroin - A hideous old woman macrobian - Describes any organism which has a long life macrologist - A boring conversationalist, usually met at parties macromancy - Divination by studying the largest object in the area macron - The horizontal line above a vowel to symbolize a long sound macrosmatic - Having a very good sense of smell maculate - To stain or make impure maculomancy - Divination by spots magirology - The art and science of cooking magniloquent - Speaking pompously or in a high flown manner magnoperate - To work on one's magnus opus maieusiophobia - See maieuticophobia maieuticophobia - A fear of childbirth malacissation - The process of making something soft and pliable malacodermous - Soft skinned malaxophobia - A fear of love play, especially in women maledicent - One who is addicted to abusive speech maledictaphobia - Fear of bad words mallemaroking - The behaviour of drunken sailors on ice bound ships malophile - One who loves apples malversation - corruption and misconduct among public officials mamihlapinatapei - The look between two people in which each loves the other but is too afraid to make the first move mammothrept - A child who is raised and spoiled by their grandmother manducable - Edible or soft enough to chew manuduction - Careful guidance or training manxane - A shape of three bent segments radiating from a common center, named after the symbol on the flag of the Isle of Man margaritamancy - Predicting the future by drinking to excess margaritomancy - Divination using pearls marginalia - Notes or drawing in the margins of a book mariticide - The murder of a husband by his wife maritodespotism - Tyrannical rulership of a woman by her husband maritorious - Excessively devoted to one's husband martext - A blundering preacher who stumbles through a sermon marzavec - A person who inspires disgust in others mastigophobia - The fear of whipping or being whipped mataeotechny - An unprofitable art or science mathemancy - Divination using mathematics matronolagnia - An attraction to older women, especially women who have children matutolypea - Getting up on the wrong side of the bed meacock - A meak man who dotes on his wife, or is henpecked mechanophobia - A fear of machinery meconomancy - Divination by sleep or magic using sleep medicaster - An inferior doctor or a medical con artist megalophobia - A fear of large things megamalophile - 1. One who really loves apples megamalophile - 2. One who love the Big Apple melissophobia - A fear of bees melittology - The study of bees melliloquent - Pertaining to a smooth talker or a con artist (literally honey-tongued) mellisugent - Honey-sucking melolagnia - Amorous feeling inspired by music melophobia - A fear of music mendaciloquent - Able to tell artful or skilled lies mendicant - One who begs for a living mentimutation - The act of changing one's mind merdivorous - One who eats excrement merdurinous - Composed of urine and dung meretricious - Looking like a whore or prostitute merinthophobia - A fear of being tied and bound meritocracy - Rulership by the most skilled leader mesocracy - Government formed from the middle class mesomorphic - Being big-boned and muscular mesonoxian - Related to midnight metallophobia - A fear of metals metapneustic - Having one's respiratory organs in one's butt metempsychosis - The passage of a soul from one body to another meteoromancy - Divination using meteors meteorophobia - A fear of meteors metopomancy - Divination using a person's forehead metrocracy - A government formed of mothers metrophobia - A fear of poetry metrophobia - A hatred or fear of poetry metutials - A small, irritating chore which must be performed before other work can commence micawber - A kind but ineffective optimist, who means well but is useless microlipet - Someone who gets upset about trivial things micromancy - Divination by studying the smallest object in the area microphobia - A fear of small things mida - The sound of a person clicking their tongue against the roof of their mouth mimp - To speak in a prissy manner, usually with pursed lips minimifidian - Having virtually no faith, almost faithless misandronist - A person who believes men are the source of all problems misapodysis - The fear of being undressed or seen undressed misarchist - One who hates any form of authority misocapnist - One who hates the smell of tobacco smoke misodockleidist - Someone who hates practicing the piano misogamist - One who hates marriage misologist - A hater of knowledge and enlightenment misomaniac - A person who hates everything misomath - A hater of math or science misoneist - A hater of things which are new misopedist - One who detests children misopolemiac - A hater of war and strife misoscopist - A person who hates to look misosophist - One who hates all wisdom or learning misotramontanist - One who hates "whatever is beyond the mountain" (the unknown)

misotyrannist - One who hates tyranny misoxene - One who hates strangers misoxeny - The dislike of strangers misprision - The unintentional failure to perform one's official duties, or neglect of duties, particularly pertaining to the government and government officials miter - The tall pointed hat worn by bishops and abbots mnemophobia - A fear of memories moil - To work hard and toil moirologist - A person who is paid to mourn molendinaceous - Like a windmill molendinaceous - Resembling a windmill molendinarius - Pertaining to any kind of mill mollynogging - The frequent use of a prostitute or immoral woman molysomophobia - A fear of contamination momiology - The study of mummies monandry - The practice of having a single husband at a time monogenism - The belief that all humans are descended from two people monomath - Someone who knows all about a single subject and nothing else monopathophobia - A fear of a specific disease monophobia - The fear of a single thing moorganize - To kill or kidnap in order to maintain a secret morganatic - A marriage between a high ranking or wealthy man and a lower class or poor woman in which neither the woman nor her children are allowed the rank or benefits given the husband. morigerate - An adjective meaning obedient morologist - A boring fools who speaks nonsense moromancy - A foolish divination mucopurulent - Composed entirely of mucus and pus mulciberian - Resembling Vulcan (the mythical figure), or a Vulcan (the alien species) muleta - The red cape used by matadors multatitious - Obtained by penalty or forfeit, such as items seized by the police multiloquent - Always talking or simply talking too much multisonous - Composed of many different sounds multivious - Having multiple possible paths mundungus - A foul smelling tobacco murenger - An officer whose job is to maintain the walls of the city muriphobia - A fear of mice or rats museology - The science of museum curatorship, including the collection and care of antiques musophobia - A fear of mice or rats mutatitil - Pertaining to an item which is borrowed mutchkin - An English pint muzhik - A Russian peasant myctophobia - A fear of darkness or of the night myomancy - Foretelling the future using the movement of mice myriadigamous - Pertaining to someone who is willing to marry all kinds of people myrmecology - The study of ants myrmecophobia - A fear of ants myrmidon - A devoted servant or disciple who follows commands without question mysophobia - 1. A fear of contamination mysophobia - 2. The fear of uncleanliness mystacial - Resembling a mustache mytacism - The incorrect or excessive use of the letter M mythomane - Someone who is prone to lie or believe in lies myxophobia - A fear of slime

N

- nacket - A rude young boy
- nanism - The condition of being dwarfed, usually applied to plants or animals
- nanophilia - An attraction to short people
- naology - The study of holy buildings such as churches
- napiform - Turnip shaped
- naprapathy - The process of massaging ligaments to cure illness
- narcokleptocracy - Rulership by drug dealers with ties to politicians and the military
- narcomancy - Divination by sleep or magic using sleep
- nasicornous - Having a horn on one's nose, such as a rhinoceros
- nassology - The science of stuffing animals for display, also called taxidermy
- natalitious - Pertaining to someone's birthday
- natatorium - An indoor swimming pool
- naufregate - To wreck or to cause a wreck
- naufregous - Causing shipwrecks
- naupathia - Sea sickness
- nauscopy - The art of spotting land or ships from far away
- navicular - Resembling a boat, or boat shaped
- nazar - A gift given to one of a lower class by a superior
- neanilagnia - An attraction to teenagers
- neanimorphism - Looking younger than one actually is
- nearomatia - Being a young mother
- nebulaphobia - A fear of clouds or of fog
- nebulochaotic - A state of being hazy and confused
- necrologist - A person who writes obituaries or eulogies
- necromancy - Divination using black magic or the dead necromimesis - Feigning death or the delusion that one is dead necrophobia - A fear of corpses necropoliphobia - A fear of cemeteries necroponent - The person who temporarily runs a household following a death in the family necyomancy - Divination involving summoning the devil nelipot - Someone who is walking without shoes nelophobia - A fear of glass neocracy - Rulership by inexperienced people neopharmaphobia - A fear of new medicines or drugs neophililia - The love of novelty neophobia - A fear of anything that is new neossology - The study of young birds neoteinia - A state of prolonged immaturity neoteinic - Pertaining to a prolonged adolescence nepenthe - A potion which causes one to forget their troubles nepheligenous - Producing clouds of smoke from tobacco nephelophobia - See nephophobia nephophobia - A fear of clouds nephoscope - An instrument for measuring the speed and altitude of clouds nepiomania - The desire of a woman to have a child nepotal - Pertaining to a nephew nesiote - Living upon an island nestcock - Someone who never leaves their parent's home neuromancer - One who tells the future by reading a person's neurons nexum - A form of loan (in ancient Rome) in which the creditor could enslave and flog the debtor if he failed to make a payment nicitate - To close and open the eyelids rapidly, as in a blink nidificate - To build a nest nidor - The aroma of cooked food, particularly meat nidorosity - Belching with the taste of undigested meat nidulation - The act of making a nest nikhedonia - The pleasure caused by anticipating good fortune or success nippitatum - Exceptionally strong beer niveous - Snow-like or resembling snow nocent - Causing harm or being guilty of a crime noctiphobia - See nyctophobia noctivagant - To roam about at night or to wander around while asleep noeclexis - The act of selecting a spouse or lover based on intelligence rather than beauty noematachograph - A device used for measuring reaction times nomancy - See onomancy nomatophobia - A fear of names nomiatrist - A lawyer whose specialty is medical law nomographer - A person who writes laws noology - The study of intuition and comprehension nooningscaup - A break given to labourers after their meal noop - The sharp point of the elbow nosism - The practice of referring to oneself as "we" nosocomephrenia - A depression caused by any extended stay in the hospital nosocomology - The study of hospital management nosomaniaphobia - A fear of suffering from an imaginary disease nosophobia - A fear of becoming ill nostology - The study of senility nostomania - Overwhelming homesickness nostophobia - A fear of returning home notarikon - The art of creating new words to represent entire sentences, or shorthand notation novendial - Lasting nine days, or the nine-day anniversary of an event novennial - Lasting nine years, or the nine year anniversary novercal - Pertaining to a stepmother novercaphobia - The fear of one's stepmother noyade - A mass drowning nucamentaceous - Pertaining to a nut nuciverous - Nut eating nucleomitophobia - A fear of atomic energy or nuclear weapons nudiustertian - Pertaining to the day before yesterday nugatory - Insignificant and unimportant nullibicity - The state of existing nowhere nullibiety - The state of being nowhere nullibiquitous - Pertaining to something which does not exist or is impossible to find nullipara - A woman with no children numerophobia - A fear of numbers numinous - Suggesting the existence or presence of a god or greater being numismatist - A coin collector nummamorous - Pertaining to someone who spends all of their time trying to make money nundinal - Pertaining to a marketplace or a fair nurk - The worst or least desirable pig in the litter.

nutation - The involuntary nodding of one's head nuxodeltiologist - One who collect postcards which depict nighttime scenes nyaffle - To quickly eat one's meal, not taking time to savour it.

nycthemeron - A period of 24-hours nyctalopia - night blindness or the inability to see in low light nycterent - A hunter who hunts at night nyctophobia - A fear of darkness or night

O

- obaceration - The act of shutting someone's mouth obambulate - To walk around or casually wander obdormition - The feeling one gets when a limb "falls asleep" obesophobia - The fear of gaining weight oblat - A soldier who, due to injuries, is given money or a job as a monk. obliviscence - Forgetfulness obmutescant - Preferring to have silence or to avoid noise obnubilare - 1.To cloud or to obscure obnubilare - 2.To be clouded and obscure obscurantist - One who writes in a vague or obscure manner obsolagnium - The lack of sexual desire that accompanies old age obstipation - Extreme form of constipation obtrude - To force oneself or one's thought on others ochlocracy - A government formed by the mob ochlophobia - A fear of crowds ochrophobia - A fear of riding in automobiles octan - Something which happens every eight days octothorpe - the symbol on telephone pads or as a number symbol oculoplasia - Letting one's eyes wander while assessing someone's charm odontalgia - A tooth ache odontomancy - Divination using teeth odontophobia - The fear of teeth odynophobia - A fear of pain oenomancy - Divination by wine oenophlygia - The state of being drunk oenophobia - The fear of wine oikology - The science of house keeping oikomania - mental disorder caused by an abusive home oikonisus - The desire to start a family oikophobia - A fear of one's home oinomancy - See oenomancy oinophobia - The fear of wine olecranon - The bony tip of the elbow olfactophobia - A fear of odors oligarchy - A government controlled by a few people oligophagous - One who eats only a few kinds of food oligophrenic - being mentally deficient or having a small brain oligotokous - Referring to a creature that lays four or less eggs ollendorfian - Writing or speaking in an overly formal and artificial style ombibulus - Someone who drinks everything ombrifuge - A shelter from the rain ombrometer - A device used for measuring rainfall ombrophilous - Capable of withstanding long periods of rain ombrophobia - A fear of rain ombrosalgia - Aches and pains felt when it rains ommatophobia - A fear of eyes omnia - Bits and pieces of various information omnierudite - One who is educated in all subjects, or who possesses universal knowledge omniloquent - One who can talk about any and all subjects omophagist - A person who eats raw flesh omoplatoscopy - Divination involving a shoulder blade which has been charred or cracked from a fire omphacine - Pertaining to fruit which is not ripe omphalomania - Foretelling the future by counting the knots in a baby's umbilical cord omphalophobia - Fear of belly buttons omphalopsychite - One who contemplates their naval onamatophobia - A fear of names oneirocritic - One who interprets dreams oneiromancy - Divination by dreams, or interpreting dreams oneirophobia - A fear of dreams onimancy - Divination using fingernails oniomania - An uncontrollable urge to buy something onomancy - Divination using a name or the letters in a name ontology - The study of the nature of being onychomancy - Divination using fingernails onychophagy - The habit of biting one's fingernails oologist - A collector of bird's eggs oomancy - Divination or magic using eggs ophidiophobia - A fear of snakes ophiomancy - Divination by snakes or serpents ophiophagous - One who eats snakes ophiophagy - The eating of snakes ophiophobia - See ophidiophobia ophthalmophobia - The fear that one is being stared at opsablepsia - The inability to look someone in the eye while speaking opsimath - One who acquires knowledge late in life opsimathiphobia - A fear of learning something too late opsimatria - The bearing of children late in a woman's life opsipatria - The fathering of a child by an elderly man opsiproligery - The ability to still have children late in life opsomaniac - One who loves a certain kind of food, bordering on madness opsophagy - The eating of delicacies optophobia - A fear of opening one's eyes orant - A religious figure of a praying woman orcheotomy - See Orchidectomy orchidectomy - Another word for castration ornithomancy - Divination using birds' flight and cries ornithophobia - A fear of birds ornithoscelidaphilia - A love of dinosaurs ornithoscelidaphobia - A fear of dinosaurs orology - The study of mountains orthophobia - A fear of correctness orthopter - A flying machine which uses flapping wings orthpolitiphobia - A fear of political correctness orthpraxy - Pertaining to people who strictly follow the teachings of their religion oryctognosy - Knowledge of soils and minerals oryctomancy - Divination by studying excavated objects oryzivorous - Pertaining to eating rice osculant - Pertaining to a close embrace or long kiss osculaphobia - A fear of kissing osmidrosiphobia - A fear of body odour or sweat osmology - The study of odors osmophilia - The love of various smells osmophobia - A fear of odors osphresiology - The study or science of smelling osphresiophobia - A fear of odors ossomancy - Divination using bones ostentiferous - Anything which brings monsters or unusual sights osteomancy - Divination using bones ostraconophobia - A fear of shellfish ostreophobia - A fear of shellfish, especially oysters otenchyte - A tool for injecting liquid into the ear otolaryngologist - A doctor who specializes in treating ear, nose and throat problems. otology - The study of the ear and its disorders oubliette - A dungeon whose only entrance is in the ceiling ouranomancy - See uranomancy ouranophobia - See uranophobia outfangtheft - The right under law of a lord to persecute a vassal caught outside of his jurisdiction ovine - Sheep like ovivorous - Egg eating oxter - To walk arm in arm oxyacanthous - Having sharp thorns or spikes oxyesthesia - Being extremely sensitive to touch oxygeusia - Being sensitive to taste oxyosphresia - An extreme sensitivity to smells oxythymous - Pertaining to someone who is quick to anger ozostomia - The state of having bad breath

P

- paedarchy - Rulership by a child or several children paedocracy - A government formed of children pagophagia - 1. The eating of ice pagophagia - 2. A folk remedy of eating a bowl of ice daily to offset iron deficiency pagophobia - A fear of ice or frost paleography - The study of ancient writings paleozoology - The study of prehistoric animals palliard - A drifter or vagabond who sleeps in the hay in people's barns pancratic - Accomplished in many forms or sport or game or having a mastery over numerous subjects pandiculation - Stretching and yawning before going to bed or after waking up panegyric - A speech or eulogy which praises a person panjandrum - A person who is pompous and considers themselves to be important panpygoptosis - A pathological condition in which the thighs are suppressed and the buttocks starts at the back of ones knees pantagamy - Married to everyone pantaphobia - A fear of lack of fear pantler - A servant whose job is to tend the bread, or who serves bread at feasts pantomancer - One who sees omens in every event pantophobia - A fear of everything papabile - A viable candidate for pope or another high office papaphobia - A fear of the pope or the papacy paparchy - Rulership by the pope papyrocracy - Rulership by paperwork or by the press

- papyrophobia - A fear of paper
- parabolanus - A monk who treat contagious diseases
- paradiorthosis - A false correction, or the addition of mistakes to correct work
- paralian - A person who lives near the sea
- paralipophobia - A fear of responsibility
- paramnesia - A disorder in which one remembers events that never happened
- paranymph - 1. The best man or bridesmaid at a wedding
- paranymph - 2. One who assists or speaks on behalf of another, particularly in love matters
- parapraxis - A lapse of memory or a slip of the tongue, usually revealing a hidden thought
- parasitophobia - A fear of parasites
- paraskevidekatriaphobia - The fear of Friday the 13th
- parateresiomania - The obsession with being a voyeur
- paravent - A shelter from the wind
- parentate - To celebrate the funeral of one's parents
- parergon - A second job or an additional source of money from extra work
- parisologist - A person who uses ambiguous language or evasive writing
- parnel - The mistress of a priest
- parorexia - The craving for strange or indigestible foods
- parosmia - A disorder which causes one to smell things that are not real
- parousiamania - An obsession with the return of Christ
- parrhesiastic - Able to speak freely
- parsonarchy - A government formed by priests
- partainym - A descriptive word, usually one whose definition begins with "Of or pertaining to..."
- partheniad - A poem which honors a virgin
- parthenolagnia - The desire to make love to virgins
- parthenolatry - worship of a virgin or virgins
- parthenophobia - The fear of virgins
- pasilaly - Any universal language
- passalorynchite - A member of an old Christian sect in which members had to take a vow of silence
- passulation - The act of drying up and turning into a raisin
- pastorauling - Walking through fields, as a young couple is apt to do
- pataphysics - The science of imaginary solutions or of nonsensical philosophy

patavinity - The use of local slang or expressions when writing pathenophilia - The love of virgins pathenophobia - The fear of virgins pathognomy - The study of emotions or physical response to emotion pathophobia - A fear of disease patroiophobia - A fear of hereditary diseases pauciloquent - Using as few words as possible when speaking pavonine - Resembling a peacock's tail in colour and iridescence paxophobia - A fear of peace peccatiphobia - A fear of sin or of sinning peckerwood - A southern term for poor anglo-saxon protestants pecunious - Having a lot of money pedantocracy - Rulership by pedants or pedagogs pediatricophobia - A fear of having to take care of children pediculophobia - A fear of lice pediophobia - 1. A fear of children pediophobia - 2. A fear of dolls pedipulate - To operate with one's feet pedotrophy - The art of raising children properly peenge - The complain with a whining tone pegomancy - Fortunetelling using the bubbles in a fountain peladophobia - A fear of people who are bald pelagic - Relating to the open oceans pelargic - Resembling a stork pelology - The study of therapeutic uses of mud pelotherapy - The medicinal use of mud baths peniaphobia - A fear of poverty penotherapy - Controlling prostitutes in order to eliminate the spread of disease penphobia - The fear of writing or of the written word pentapopemptic - One who is divorced five times pentheraphobia - Fear of Mother in Law peramene - An obsolete adjective meaning 'very pleasant' percoarcted - Brought into a small room or through a narrow passage percontation - A question or inquiry percribate - The act of sifting percussion - An extreme shock or concern perendinate - To delay until the day of tomorrow or to delay indefinitely perfuncturate - To perform some task in a careless or listless manner perhendinancer - A traveller or guest at a lodge periblebsis - The wild look which accompanies delirium periclitare - To put at risk or in danger peripatetic - walking about, usually while studying periphrastic - Pertaining to circumlocution or to one who is wordy perissodactyl - Having an odd number of toes perissopedics - The special branch of pediatric dealing with gifted children peristerophilist - One who collects pigeons peristerophily - The art of training pigeons peristerophobia - A fear of pigeons pernoctation - The act of staying up all night doing work or attending a party pernoctator - A person who studies through the night pervulgate - To publish something pessomancy - Divination using stones or rocks phagomania - Insatiable hunger phagophobia - A fear of eating or swallowing phalacrophobia - A fear of going bald phalacrophia - Fear of going bald phanerolagnia - A psychologist who studies human lust phaneromania - The compulsive habit of picking at scabs or growths pharisee - A very self-righteous person pharmacophobia - A fear of medicine or drugs pharmacopolist - A person who sells medicine pharology - The study of lighthouses or similar signalling devices phasmophobia - A fear of ghosts phenakism - An act of treachery or cheating phengophobia - The fear of the Sun or of sunlight phigerophobia - See pnigophobia philalethist - A lover of the truth philandrist - One who loves men philatelist - A stamp collector philemaphobia - A fear of kissing philematology - The study of kissing philematophobia - See philemaphobia philiater - A medical student phillumenist - A collector of matchbooks or matchboxes philocalist - A lover of beauty philocomal - Pertaining to hair care philocubist - A lover of games involving dice philodespot - One who loves tyranny philodox - Someone who loves their own opinions philogeant - One who loves everything on the Earth philographer - A collector of autographs philogynist - One who loves women philologist - One who loves literature and languages philomath - One who loves math and the sciences philomythist - A person who loves mythology philoneist - One who is obsessed with trends or fads philonoist - Someone who is seeking knowledge philophobia - A fear of love or of falling in love philopolemicist - A person who loves to argue or debate philoprogenity - The love of your children philosophaster - A person who pretends to know more than they do to impress others philosophobia - A fear of philosophy or philosophers philosophunculist - A person who pretends to know more than they do to impress others philotherian - An animal lover philoxenist - A person who loves to entertain strangers philtrum - The groove in the middle of one's upper lip phlyarologist - One who constantly speaks nonsense phobanthropy - The fear of humanity in general phobologophobia - The fear of words about fears phobophobia - A fear of being afraid phoenicurous - Having a red tail phonascetics - Any exercise used to strengthen one's voice phonocamptics - The science of echoes phonophobia - 1. The fear of sound phonophobia - 2. The fear of speaking to an audience photoaugiaphobia - A fear of glaring lights or being in the spot light photophobia - A fear of light phrenology - The study of how the shape of one's skull determines characteristic traits

- phronemophobia - The fear of thinking
- phrontifugic - helping to escape from one's thoughts
- phrontistery - A place for study or for contemplation
- phthiriophobia - A fear of lice
- phthiropagous - One who eats lice
- phthisiophobia - The fear of tuberculosis
- phudnik - An irritating person who also has a PhD
- phylactery - One of two small black leather boxes which contain biblical verses of Jewish law
- phyllomancy - Magic using leaves or foretelling one's future from leaves
- physiognomancy - Divination using a person's face
- physitheism - Giving physical form to a deity
- physitism - The worship of nature
- phytivorous - Pertaining to vegetable - eating
- pica - A craving for an inedible substance (such as chalk or paint chips)
- Pickelhaube - The spiked helmet worn by German or Prussian soldiers before World War I
- pickthank - A sycophant or yes-man
- pilcrow - The symbol used by editors to indicate a new paragraph
- pillion - A seat for a second person on a motorcycle or on a horse
- pillion - The second seat on a motorcycle or on a saddle
- pilosism - Excessive hairiness
- pilpul - A subtle debate between rabbinical scholars over the details of the Talmud
- pimpomp - A game whose objective is to kick other players in the backside
- pintle - The pin that holds a hinge together
- piobalreachd - A dirge played on the Highland bagpipes
- piscatology - The science of fishing
- pisculent - Filled with fish
- pismirism - The saving of every bit of money, such as hoarding pennies
- placophobia - The fear of tombstones
- plangent - A deep, reverberating sound such as heavy bells ringing or thunder
- plangonologist - A collector of dolls
- planiloquent - Talking plainly about some subject
- planomania - The urge to roam
- plastron - The padded jacket worn while fencing platyopic - having a broad flat nose pleionosis - The habit of exaggerating one's own importance pleniloquent - Always talking or full of speech plenilune - The time of the full moon plenipotentiary - Given complete and total authority, or a person who has such power pleonexia - A mental illness whose main symptom is greed plevisable - Able to be bailed out of jail ploddeill - A group of people carrying cudgels or staves plongeur - One who washes dishes for a living plousiocracy - A government consisting of the wealthy and the elite plumassier - Someone who makes or sells feathers used in ornaments plumpendicular - To be perpendicular to the ground plutarchy - A government formed by the wealthy and elite plutocracy - Rulership by the wealthy or elite plutocrat - A member of the wealthy ruling class plutolatry - The worship of wealth plutomania - An obsession with money pluviophobia - A fear of rain pneobiognosis - The determination of whether a newborn is alive based on the amount of air present in their lungs pneumatophobia - A fear of air pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis - A miner's lung disease caused by inhaling silicate dust pnigophobia - A fear of choking pocourante - Nonchalant or indifferent podlec - A bad person who inspires hatred and contempt podoscaph - A boat propelled by bicycle treadles poetaster - An unskilled poet, or one who writes bad poetry pogonophobia - A fear of beards poikilothermal - Cold blooded

poikilothermal - Cold blooded
poinophobia - A fear of punishment polemology - The study of war politicaster - Second rate politician or incompetent leader politicophobia - A fear of politicians pollarchy - Rulership by the mob poltophagy - To chew food until it is the consistency of porridge polyandry - Marriage to several men polyapopemptic - Having been divorced numerous times polydipsia - An excessive thirst - either literally or figuratively polyglot - 1. A person who speaks many languages polyglot - 2. A book written in multiple languages polyglot - 3. A confusion of multiple languages spoken at once polygyny - Marriage to several women polylogize - To talk excessively polyloquent - One who can talk about numerous subjects polymath - A person of superior and wide ranging knowledge polyphage - Someone who eats many kinds of foods polyphloisboian - Making a lot of noise or a loud racket polyphobia - A fear of many things polytheism - The belief that there are many gods pomology - The study of how fruit grows ponerologist - One who expounds on the evils of nature ponophobia - The fear of overworking popliteal - The hollow area behind the knee porphyrophobia - A fear of the color purple posology - The area of medicine dealing with dosages posthetomist - A person who performs circumcisions post-knight - A person who will testify to anything for the right price potamophobia - A fear of rivers potophobia - A fear of drinking alcohol potvaliant - Describes one who is brave due to being drunk poulaine - Pointy toed shoes such as worn by jesters preantepenultimate - Fourth from last precibal - Before dinner prelapsarian - Pertaining to the time before the biblical fall presbycusis - The loss of hearing due to old age presbyopia - The loss of sight due to old age prescient - Having foresight or knowledge of what will happen.

preterist - One who believes that the prophecies preceding the Apocalypse have been fulfilled preterition - The doctrine that God has decided who to save and passes over everyone else preternuptual - After the marriage, and often used to describe an affair preterpluperfect - More than perfect probosciform - having a nose like an elephant's trunk procreosophobia - The fear of gaining weight proficuous - advantageous and useful prognathous - Having a jaw which extends past the rest of one's face propinquiphobia - A fear of being too close prosophobia - A fear of progress prosopography - The description of a person's appearance prosopolepsy - The acceptance of people based on the appearance prosopolethy - The inability to remember a face protean - Having no permanent form or shape psaphonic - Preoccupied with plotting your ascent to wealth and renown psellism - An indistinct pronunciation, such as produced by a lisp or by stammering psellismophobia - The fear of stuttering psephology - The study of political elections psephomancy - Divination by drawing marked stones from a container pseudandry - The use of a masculine pseudonym by a woman pseudautochiria - A murder which is made to look like a suicide pseudepigraphous - Signed with a false signature pseudoantidisestablishmentarianism - The false support of the idea that a government should not support the church pseudogyny - The use of a feminine pseudonym by a man pseudomancy - A false or fake divination pseudophonia - See pseudautochiria pseudorhombicuboctahedron - A solid which has twenty-six faces psilanthropism - The belief that Jesus was not a God, but a man psilanthropy - The belief that Jesus was a mere mortal psithurism - The sound of wind in trees or rustling leaves psychomancy - Divination by talking to the dead psychopannuchist - One who believes that the souls of the dead enter an eternal sleep psychophobia - A fear of the mind psychopomp - 1. One who leads the spirits of the dead to their final rest psychopomp - 2. A spiritual advisor to the living psychrolutist - One who recommends cold baths as a cure all psychrophobia - A fear of cold pteridology - The study of ferns pteronophobia - A fear of feathers pteryology - The study of feather arrangements on birds ptochocracy - A government formed of the poor puellaphillist - One who loves girls pule - To complain and whine, as a small child would pulicose - Infested with fleas pullulate - To breed rapidly, or to overpopulate pygalgia - A pain in the butt pyknic - Being stocky and round pyosis - The formation of pus or the process through which pus is formed pyrexiphobia - A fear of fever pyrgology - The study of towers pyriform - Shaped like a pear pyrography - The art of writing on wood or decorating wood by burning it pyromancy - Divination using fire or magic involving fire pyrophobia - A fear of fire pyrrhonist - A skeptic who accepts nothing at face value pysmatic - Always asking questions or inquiring pythogenic - Coming from garbage pyx - The container which holds the wafer used in Holy Communion

Q

qasida - A form of arabic poetry qiviut - The soft undercoat on a musk ox, often used in making coats quackle - To have one's breathing interrupted, as in choking quader - To multiply a number by itself quadragerian - A person who is 40 years old, or between 40 and 50 quadragesimarian - One who observes Lent quadrel - A square stone or tile quadrifid - To be cut into four pieces quadrigamist - Someone who either has been married four times or who is married to four people quadriliteral - Pertaining to a word which has four letters quadrumane - A four handed animal, such as a monkey or ape quadrumanous - 1. Having four hands quadrumanous - 2. Being very destructive, or as destructive as a wild ape quaestuary - Seeking money or trying to make money qualtagh - The first person you see after leaving your house quar - To clutter a hallway or otherwise block a passage quartan - Something which occurs every four days quasihemidemisemiquaver - According to British musical notation, a 128th note quatrayle - One's great great great grandfather quean - 1. A whore or prostitute quean - 2. A young, unmarried woman quercine - Pertaining to an oak tree quiddler - A person who hangs around wasting time at work and making conversation with people who are working quidnunc - A person who always wants to know what is going on quincunx - A set of five objects arranged with one at each corner of a square, and the fifth in the center quinquagesimal - Consisting of fifty days quinquepartite - Having five parts quisquilian - Consisting of trash and rubbish quockerwodger - Originally a wooden toy which moves when a string is pulled, now also means a politician who is controlled by someone else quodlibertarian - A pedantic person who engages in elaborate arguments about minor things quodlibet - A subtle debate over a theological point by Christians quoin - An external angle in a wall or building quomodocunquize - To make money by any means possible quotidian - Occuring every day

R

rachisagra - A pain in the spine racklettes - The skins small wrinkle lines that form at each joint, particularly in old age radiophobia - The fear of radiation raith - A quarter of a year rampasture - A room in which several unmarried men reside, usually in a boarding house or inn rasorial - Scratching the ground in search of food ratomorphism - The belief that all mental abilities present in humans are also present in animals razbliuto - The feeling one has about a person they once loved, but no longer feel anything for reasty - Something which is covered in rust or has a rusty taste to it rebarbative - Describing something which is extremely irritating recrudescence - The reappearance of a disease or illness after being cured rectalgia - A pain in the ass rectigrade - Moving in a straight line rectiphobia - A fear of being corrected rectirostal - Describing a bird (or other animal) with a straight beak rectopathic - One who is easy to hurt emotionally recumbentibus - A knockout punch, either verbal or physical recuse - To excuse a judge from their duties redactophobia - A fear of editing or of editors redhibition - The cancellation of a sale due to the product being defective redubber - A person who steals cloths and resells them reest - To smoke or cure either meat or fish refrangible - Capable of being refracted refulgent - Shining brightly or radiating

- regiphobia - A fear of a king or kings
- rehibition - The act of taking back defective products
- rememle - A false memory
- remiped - Having legs or arms which act like oars - especially referring to insects
- remontado - A person who lives in the forest or mountains and avoid civilization
- remplissage - The padding of literary works or of musical works
- renidification - The act of rebuilding one's nest
- repine - To express discontent or longing
- resipiscent - To learn from experience or have one's sanity restored
- resistentialism - The spiteful behaviour of inanimate objects
- rhabdomancy - Divination using a stick or rod, such as dowsing for water
- rhabdophobia - A fear of magic
- rhabdophobia - A fear of sticks or rods, or of being beaten with them
- rhadamanthine - Being completely fair and incorruptible
- rhapsodomancy - The art of predicting the future using poetry
- rhineurynter - An inflatable bag used to plug a persons nose
- rhinophonia - An extreme nasal sound in one's voice
- rhombicosidodecahedron - An Archimedean solid composed of sixty two faces
- rhonchisonant - The sound of snorting or imitating snorting sounds
- rhyparographer - One who paints or writes about unpleasant or sordid subjects
- rhyphobia - See rupophobia
- rhytectomy - The surgical removal of wrinkles
- rhytiphobia - Fear of getting wrinkles
- rhytiscopia - an obsession with one's facial wrinkles
- ribazuba - Ivory taken from walrus tusks
- riparian - Relating to the bank of a river
- risorial - Related to laughter
- rixatrix - A nasty old women, usually with a tendency to natter and scold
- roil - To make muddy by stirring or to disturb sediment
- rondelle - Any round or circular object, but especially round jewels
- roorback - An ugly rumor of fabricated news story created to discredit a political opponent
- rosacea - A condition in which a person has a large red nose
- roseate - Being overly cheerful and optimistic

- rosicler - The glowing light of dawn
- roucoulement - The gentle cooing of doves or other soft voices
- rouleau - A cylinder of coins rolled in paper
- rubedinous - Reddish colored
- rubicon - A line which is crossed to signify a commitment to a dangerous act
- rubricate - To mark in red
- ructation - Belching or burping
- ruderal - Growing in a garbage dump
- rugulose - Having small wrinkles
- rumbelow - 1. A song or refrain sung by sailors while rowing a boat
- rumbelow - 2. A common whore
- rumbelow - 3. A type of carriage
- runcation - The act of weeding
- rupestrian - Made out of rocks
- rupicoline - Living among or growing on rocks
- rupophobia - A fear of dirt
- rurigenous - One who has been born in the country
- rustication - Taking a trip to the countryside

S

- sabaism - The worship of stars (usually the celestial form)
- sabbulonarium - A gravel pit, or money paid to someone who digs gravel
- sacheverell - An alternate name for a chamber pot
- salariat - The social class of those who earn a salary, or who have job security.
- salebrosity - Uneven and rough
- salutatorian - The second best student in a graduating class, whose job it is to give an introductory speech
- samizdat - A word of Russian origin meaning illegal or underground writing by dissidents
- sanctiloquent - Speaking of something which is holy or sacred
- sandapile - Another name for a coffin
- sandillions - A slang term for the number of grains of sand on a beach
- sanguinivorous - A blood sucker
- sanguinolency - An addiction to the shedding of blood
- sanguivorous - One who drinks blood
- sapience - Wisdom
- saponaceous - 1. Being soapy or slippery
- saponaceous - 2. Being very nice and ingratiating
- sapphism - The state of being lesbians
- saprogenic - Causing rot and decay
- saprophagous - One who eats dead or decaying animals
- saprophilous - Living in rotting waste
- saprostomous - Having bad breath
- saraad - A fine levied by ancient Welsh courts which were paid in cattle
- sarcinarius - Able to carry a heavy burden
- sarcle - To dig up weeds
- sarcophagic - Pertaining to something which eats flesh sarculation - Weeding using a rake sardanapalian - Being luxuriously effeminate like the Byron hero Sardanapalus sardonic - Scornful and mocking sarmassophobia - A fear of love play, especially in women sartorial - Pertaining to tailors sarvodaya - An idealized society based on no class system and no violence sarwan - A person who rides and guides a camel satanophany - Possession by the devil satisdiction - Having said everything that needs to be said satrapess - An official who acts like a petty tyrant saturnalian - Wild and unrestrained, usually referring to a riotous party saulie - A person who is hired to mourn saxatile - Pertaining to rocks saxify - To turn to stone or rock scabilonian - A disliked or tacky garment scacchic - Pertaining to the game of chess, or to chess pieces scaldabanco - A preacher who delivers a fiery sermon scapulimancy - Divination involving a shoulder blade which has been charred or cracked from a fire scarpology - The science of determining characteristic traits by examining a persons shoes scatology - The study of excrement scatomancy - Magic or divination using excrement scatophagous - One who eats excrement scatophobia - A fear of excrement scelerophobia - A fear of evil men, such as burglars or muggers scelestious - Wicked or evil schadenfreude - Taking pleasure in the misfortunes of others schematomancy - Divination using the appearance of people schizocarp - The winged seed pod of maple trees schnappszahl - A number with an interesting pattern among its digits schoenobatist - A tight rope walker scholaptitude - A natural ability to perform scholarly achievements schrecklichkreit - A battle tactic in which non-combatants are intentionally terrorized schwa - The inverted e used to symbolized a relaxed vowel sound which is neither short nor long sciamachy - Fighting with a shadow or an imaginary opponent sciamachy - To fight with a shadow, or shadow boxing sciaphobia - A fear of shadows sciapodous - 1. Having huge feet sciapodous - 2. Having feet larger than one's entire body scintillation - The twinkling of stars or small bursts of light sciolist - A person who pretends to be an intellectual but is not sciomancy - Divination by talking to the dead sciophobia - See sciaphobia scobiform - Resembling sawdust scoleciphobia - The fear of worms scolecophagous - One who eats worms scolionophobia - A fear of school scollardical - An insulting term for educated people, or for people who brag of their intelligence scopolagnia - The pleasure gained by a voyeur scotch - A block of wood or a brick used under vehicle wheels to prevent rolling scoteography - The art of writing in the dark scotomaphobia - A fear of scotoma, (having spots before your eyes) scotophobia - A fear of darkness or of the night scriptophobia - The fear of writing or of the written word scutiferous - 1. Carrying a shield or armor scutiferous - 2. Being covered in scales like a reptile sebaceous - Oozing slime or grease secundogeniture - 1. Being the second born son secundogeniture - 2. Any property inherited by the second son seel - To sew one's eyes shut selachostomous - Shark - mouthed selacophobia - A fear of sharks selaphobia - A fear of flashing lights or strobe lights selenocentric - One whose life revolves around the moon (a "space cadet") selenography - The science of geography of the moon selenomancy - Divination using the moon selenophobia - A fear of the moon self-agglandize - To make oneself more attractive by artificial means semelparous - Having only one child, or one litter sempiternal - Lasting forever senectitude - Old age sepicolous - Living in a bush or hedges septemplicate - One of seven exact copies septimanarian - A monk who is given a week of duties to perform septophobia - A fear of decay or decaying matter sermocination - A speaker answering their own questions sesquialteral - Having a ratio of one to one and a half sgiomlaireached - The habit of dropping in at mealtimes sgriob - The itchiness of the upper lip just before taking a sip of whiskey shaconian - A person who believes Francis Bacon wrote Shakespeare's works shakos - The hat usually worn by members of a marching band shanachie - A person who enjoys telling stories or legends shapka - The fur covered, brimless hat worn by many Russians in the winter shibboleth - Any dialect or custom which marks an individual or group as being foreign shistaceous - slate colored or livid, especially pertaining to skin shivviness - A rough feeling caused by new underwear shoat - A worthless young fellow, originally a young hog shunamitism - The rejuvenation of an older man by a younger woman shurocracy - A government based on consensus sialagogue - Anything which promotes salivation sialoquent - Spraying saliva when speaking siderodromophobia - Fear of railroads or trains sideromancy - 1. Foretelling the future by studying the stars sideromancy - 2. Divination using straw burned on hot metal siderophobia - The fear of stars siffilate - To talk in a whisper siffleur - A professional whistler sigillate - To cover with official stamps and seals silential - Performed in silence or pertaining to silence silentium - A place in which silence is enforced simphobia - The fear of speaking straight forwardly and in simple terms singerie - A piece of artwork which includes monkeys instead of people sinistrophobia - A fear of the left side or things on the left side sithcundman - The oldest resident of an area sitiophobia - A fear of food skiaphobia - See sciaphobia skirl - A piercing sound such as produced by the high notes of a bagpipe skookum - First rate or the best (from Chinook jargon) skoptsy - The act of self castration slavocracy - A government formed of slave owners slidikins - An oath on God's eyelids sloken - To quench one's thirst loyd - Skilled work (usually manufacturing) which requires dexterous use of tools slubberdegullion - A boorish slob smaragdine - Pertaining to emeralds smatchet - A small nasty person or a nasty child smellfungus - A person who finds faults with everything snarf - 1. To fall asleep with your clothes on snarf - 2. The act of laughing while drinking and expelling the fluid through one's nose snath - The long bent handle on a scythe snead - The long bent handle of a scythe snipsnapsnorum - A type of card game snirtle - The sound made by someone who is suppressing laughter snoach - To speak through the nose snollygosters - Sleazy politicians or lawyers snood - The fleshy appendage on the beak of a male turkey snup - To buy something of value which some ignorant person has discarded or sold cheap snurl - To turn up one's nose in scorn snurt - To expel mucus when sneezing snuzzle - To poke around with one's nose, as dogs do soceraphobia - A fear of parents in law sociophobia - The fear of society or friendship sodality - An association or organized group solecism - An error in word usage, grammar, or in social etiquette solfeggio - A singing exercise using the syllable do,re,mi,fa,so,la,ti solipsism - The philosophy the one's self or one's mind in the only thing that exists solivagant - Wandering all alone solleret - A metallic pointy toed shoe worn by knights somatology - The science of using a person's physical features to determine their personality somnifugous - Something which drives away sleep somniloquent - Speaking in one's sleep sophist - A person who uses deceptive reasoning to win debates sophophobia - 1. A fear of knowledge or wisdom sophophobia - 2. A fear of learning sophrosyne - The quality of wise moderation or discreet good sense sorbile - Drinkable sorocide - The killing of one's own sister sororate - The marriage of a man to his wife's sister soterial - Pertaining to salvation soteriology - The doctrine the salvation can only be granted by Christ spaneria - A place with few or no men spanghew - To cause a frog or a toad to fly through the air spanogyny - A place with few or no women sparge - To moisten by sprinkling with water spargefaction - The moistening of something by sprinkling it with water spartle - To flounder and flail about spartostatics - The study of rope strength or how to strengthen rope spasmatomancy - Divination using convulsions or twitching of one's limbs spatilomancy - Divination using animal droppings spatulamancy - Divination involving the shoulder blades of animals spectocloacaphobia - The fear of one's eyeglasses falling in the sewer spectroheliokinematograph - A special camera used to film the Sun spectrophobia - A fear of mirrors sphallolalia - Flirtatious talk that leads nowhere spheksophobia - The fear of wasps spheromancy - Divination using a crystal sphere sphragistics - The science and history of seals and stamps sphygmomanometer - The device used to measure blood pressure spiculate - To sharpen to a point spilikins - The wooden pegs used in the game of cribbage spindrifft - The ocean spray which is blown by the wind spindrifft - The spray that comes of water in a wind storm splanchnology - The study of the internal organs of humans spodogenous - Pertaining to being in the presence of waste spodomancy - Divination using ashes spoliate - The act of spoiling or damaging spoliator - One who spoils, or destroys sprag - A block of wood or a brick used under vehicle wheels to prevent rolling sproag - To chase girls in the dark, usually through fields of hay spuddle - To treat minor business as if it were serious and important squamous - covered with scales squamulose - covered with very small scales, as in snakes squirearchy - Rulership by the landed gentry stafador - A fake or an imposter stagiary - A student of law stagnolous - Living in stagnant water stalko - A poor man who pretends he is rich stasibasiphobia - The fear of standing and walking stasiphobia - The fear of standing (for fear of falling) staurolatry - Worship of the cross or Christ on a cross staurophobia - A fear of crucifixes steatopygic - Having a fat behind stellionate - The unauthorized sale of a piece of property stenophobia - A fear of narrow places stenotopic - One who can only live in a very specific environment stentorian - Pertaining to very loud and resonant sounds stentorophonic - Having a loud, powerful voice or making a loud sound stercoricolous - Living in dung sterculius - A God who rules over feces and dung stereognosis - Deducing the weight of an object by handling it sternutation - The sound of a sneeze or the act of sneezing sternutatory - Something which causes sneezing sterquilinous - Pertaining to a dung heap stertorous - Having a deep raspy sound produced by an obstructed air passage stichomancy - Divination using random lines from a book or the Bible stigmatology - The art of proper punctuation storiology - The study of folklore and legends strataphrenia - A neurosis caused by serving in the military stratocracy - A government formed of the military stridulation - The shrill sound produced by crickets and other insects strigil - A device for removing sweat from wrestlers strihedonia - The pleasure of being able to say to hell with it strumpetocracy - A government formed of prostitutes

- struthious - Like an ostrich
- stultiloquent - Speaking senselessly or babbling idiotically
- stupration - The rape of a virgin
- stygiophobia - A fear of hell
- suaviloquent - Speaking in a sophisticated manner
- succedaneum - An acceptable but inferior substitution
- sudorific - Causing perspiration or inducing sweating
- suggilated - Badly beaten black and blue
- suoid - Like a hog
- supernaculum - To drink to the last drop
- suppedaneum - The block of wood supporting the feet of a crucified person
- surbater - One who walks until their companions are exhausted
- surfeitigo - The sudden feeling of being stuffed by food, friends, or invitations
- suriphobia - A fear of mice or rats
- sutler - A person who follows the army in order to sell provisions to the soldiers
- swarf - The metallic dust that accumulates after sharpening or grinding metal
- swinophobia - A fear of pigs or swine
- sybarite - A person devoted to luxury and pleasure
- sycomancy - Divination using figs
- symmetrophobia - The fear of symmetry
- symposiarch - A master of ceremonies
- syndyasmia - The proper term for an open marriage in which either partner may live with other people
- synesthesia - A condition in which a stimulation of one sense causes sensation of another sense
- syngenesophobia - A fear of relatives
- syntality - The predictable behaviour of a specific social group

T

- tachophobia - The fear of speed
- tachydidactic - Being taught rapidly or teaching quickly
- tachydidaxy - Rapid teaching or instruction
- tachygrapher - A person who writes quickly, such as a stenographer
- tachygraphy - Short hand or stenography
- tachyphagia - Fast eating
- tachyphrasia - The act of talking very fast
- tadoma - The ability of the deaf to 'listen' to someone by placing their fingers on the speakers face
- taniophobia - See teniophobia
- talaria - Winged shoes, such as worn by Hermes
- taligrade - Walking on the outer edge of one's foot
- tallith - The traditional prayer shawl worn by Jewish men
- tam-o-shanter - The beret worn by Scottish highland pipers
- tanquam - A person with enough education to attend college
- tantony - 1. The runt of the litter
- tantony - 2. The smallest bell in a church
- tantony - 3. One who always follows others
- tantrels - People who refuse to get a job
- taphephillia - The love of funerals
- taphephobia - 1. A fear of graves
- taphephobia - 2. Fear of being buried alive
- tapinophobia - A fear of small things
- tarantism - an urge to overcome melancholy by dancing
- tarantismus - A disease in which people suddenly start dancing to imaginary music
- tarassis - The male equivalent of hysteria (which technically only applied to women) tartarology - The study of the underworld or doctrine pertaining to Hell tatamae - A Japanese word for a belief that everyone claim publically, but do not always agree with privately tath - Either cattle manure or the grass that grows in dung tatterdemalion - An unkempt person who wears rags taurophobia - A fear of bulls technocracy - Rulership by technicians or experts technophobia - The fear of technology tegestologist - A collector of beer mugs and beer coasters teleology - The philosophical study of one's purpose in life teleophobia - A fear of religious ceremonies telmatology - The study of swamps and bogs temerity - A form of extreme boldness temulentia - An advanced stage of drunkenness, to the point of unconsciousness tenebrosity - Darkness or obscurity teniophobia - The fear of tapeworms tentiginous - 1. Tight or strained tentiginous - 2. Full of lust teratophobia - A fear of deformed people teratophobia - A fear of monsters or of having a deformed child terebinthine - Pertaining to or resembling turpentine terebration - A pain that feels as though a drill is boring through some body part tergiversate - To change sides and abandon a cause, often religious termagant - A violent, brawling woman terpsichorean - Pertaining to dancing, or a dancer tessaraglot - A person who is capable of speaking in four languages testudineous - Being as slow as a tortoise textophobia - A fear of certain fabrics thaasophobia - A fear of sitting thalassophobia - A fear of the sea or an ocean thalian - Pertaining to comics or comedy thallasocracy - Command of the sea, or by the sea thanatophobia - A fear of death thanatopsis - The contemplation of death thaumatology - The study of miracles theandric - Pertaining to a person who is both a human and a god theanthropism - The belief in the union of the divine and human theanthropist - One who believes that gods can take human forms theanthropos - A person who is worshipped as a god theanthropy - The belief in the union of the divine and human thearchy - Rulership by a god or gods thelytokous - Having only female offspring thenar - The fleshy mass at the base of the thumb theochristic - anointed by God theocracy - Government formed by the church or by a representative of God theocrasy - The worship of different gods theodemocracy - A democracy which is controlled by divine powers theogamy - A marriage between gods theoktony - The death of God or of gods theologaster - A religious charlatan theologicophobia - The fear of theology theologoumenon - Individual opinion on God or divinity theomachy - A war between gods or a war against gods theomancy - Using gods or oracles to foretell the future theomania - A madness in which one claims to be a god or represent God on some mission theomastix - A divine scourge of mortals or a disaster sent by God theomicrist - A person who mocks God or divinity theomorphic - Resembling a god or having godlike qualities theonomy - Rulership by God or a government formed by God theophagy - The eating of a god (such as in the Christian communion) theophany - The manifestation of a deity on Earth theophilanthropist - A person who loves both God and mankind theophobia - A fear of Gods or the wrath of God theoplasm - The stuff gods are made of theopneusty - Divine inspiration, especially one that enables someone to reveal divine truths therianthropic - Combining human and animal forms, such as the centaur theriolater - A person who worships animals theriolatry - The worship of animals as gods theriomancy - Divination using animals or their movement thermophobia - A fear of heat thixophobia - The fear of touching or being touched thole - A pin in the gunwhale of a boat to hold an oar thrasonical - Being brash and boastful threpterophilia - An attraction to female nurses thrioboly - Divination using stones or rocks thrip - To snap one's fingers thumbstal - A leather cap put on an injured thumb to protect it from further injury thurible - The incense holder used in religious ceremonies thurification - The burning of incense thygatrilagnia - An incestuous desire for one's daughter tibialoconcupiscent - Having a lascivious interest in watching a women put on stockings timbromaniac - An avid stamp collector timmynoggy - A device the saves time and labor timocracy - A government of honorable people tirocinium - A soldier's first battle titubate - To stumble and stagger, or to roll back and forth tocology - The study of obstetrics or midwifery tocophobia - A fear of childbirth tocsin - The ringing of an alarm, or the alarm itself toggy - A long beaverskin coat popular among northern fur traders tolutiloquent - Pertaining to a smooth talker tomalley - A type of lobster liver that turns green when heated tomecide - The act of murdering or destroying a book tomentose - Covered with thick tangled hair tomophobia - The fear of surgery tonitruone - A device used in theater or movies to create thunder tonitruous - Reverberating with the sound of thunder tonitruophobia - The fear of thunder topomancy - Divination using the shape of the land toponymics - The study of place names topophobia - 1. A fear of performing topophobia - 2. A fear of a particular place torschlusspanik - The fear of young women that they will not be married until they are to old to have children tortfeaser - A wrongdoer toxicophobia - See toxiphobia toxiphobia - A fear of poison or being poisoned tramontane - Pertaining to something foreign or strange transume - To make an official copy of a document traumatophobia - A fear of injury tregetour - A street magician or juggler tremophobia - The fear of trembling trichechine - Resembling a walrus trichinophobia - The fear of trichinosis trichology - The science of hair and hair diseases trichopathophobia - A fear of hair disease trichophobia - A fear of hair trichotillomania - Tearing out one's hair tricorne - A hat with three points such as was worn by american revolutionaries triskaidekaphobia - A fear of the number thirteen tritavia - The great grandmother of one's great grandmother tritavus - The great grandfather of one's great grandfather tritheism - Believing in three gods, such as the Trinity triturate - To crush into a fine powder triumvirate - A government consisting of three people trochilidist - A person who studies hummingbirds trochomancy - Divination by studying wheel tracks tropoclastics - The science of breaking habits tropophobia - A fear of changes or making changes truckle - To act submissive to someone else trullization - The act of laying on plaster with a trowel truttaceous - Resembling a trout trypanophobia - A fear of injections or inoculations tsiology - The study of tea, or a dissertation on tea tubicination - The sound made by someone blowing a horn turistaphobia - The fear of contaminated water turistaphobia - The fear of travelling turpitude - A deprave or shamefully wicked act twiss - An alternate name for a chamber pot tychopotamic - Pertaining to something which lives in fresh water tycolosis - Accident prevention tyg - A seventeenth century mug having twelve handles typhlobasia - The act of kissing with closed eyes typhlology - The study of blindness typp - The number of thousands of yards of yarn which weighs one pound tyrannophobia - The fear of tyrants tyromancy - Divination or magic using cheese tyrophagia - The act of eating cheese tyrophillia - The love of cheese tyrophobia - The fear of cheese tyrotoxism - Poisoning by cheese tziganologist - One who studies gypsies and their culture

U

- ubiquarian - A person who has travelled everywhere
- ubuntu - The philosophy that society is built upon individuals helping each other
- uitbuiken - To enjoy a leisurely meal without rushing
- uitwaaien - To walk in a windstorm for no reason or for fun
- uliginous - Full of moisture, or swampy and slimy
- ullage - The amount of a container which is empty, or the unused part of a container
- uloid - Resembling a scar
- ulotrichous - Having very wooly hair
- ultimogeniture - Inheritance by the youngest son
- ultracrepidarian - One who speaks or offers opinions in subjects they know nothing about
- ultracrepidarianism - The act or habit of talking constantly about subjects of which you know little or nothing
- ultroneous - Pertaining to a witness who testifies voluntarily
- umtagati - A worker of evil magic
- unasinous - Being equally stupid or assinine
- undecillion - A large number - a one followed by either 36 or 66 zeroes.
- undigenous - Created or generated by water
- undinism - The trait of having erotic thoughts when viewing or thinking of water
- unigravida - A woman's first pregnancy
- uranomancy - Divination by consulting the heavens
- uranomania - The delusion that one is of Heavenly descent
- uranophobia - A fear of heaven
- urbicolous - Living in the city
- uredinology - The study of rust

- uredinology - The study of rust
- uredophobia - See urticariaphobia
- urimancy - Magic or fortunetelling using urine
- urophobia - The fear of urinating
- urticariaphobia - A fear of itching
- urticate - 1. To beat with a whip
- urticate - 2. To sting with nettles
- ustulate - Scorched or discolored from prolonged exposure to heat
- usufruct - The right to use another's property, with the condition that the property be unchanged
- utlesse - An escape from prison
- uvate - Grape jam or jelly
- uxoricide - The murder of a wife by her husband
- uxorious - Excessively devoted to one's husband
- uxorodespotic - Tyrannical rulership by one's wife

V

- vaccinophobia - The fear of vaccinations
- valedutinerian - 1. A person who constantly believes that they are sick
- valetudinerian - 2. A person who is obsessed with some ailment
- valgus - Being bow-legged
- vaniloquent - Speaking only of oneself or speaking egotistically
- vapulate - To beat with a whip
- vastation - To purify something by using fire, or to purify a soul by cremation
- vaticide - The murder of a prophet
- vauntie - Being proud or in high spirits
- vellicate - To twitch or move erratically
- veneniferous - Transferring or bearing poison
- ventifact - A stone which has been shaped by the wind or wind driven sand
- ventripotent - Having a fat belly, or being a glutton
- venustaphobia - The fear of beautiful women
- verbigerate - To continually repeat a word or phrase, usually unconsciously
- verbivore - A person who devours words
- verbophobia - The fear of words
- verdure - The shades of green describing plants and vegetation
- veriloquent - Speaking nothing but the truth
- vermiform - Like a worm
- vermiphobia - The fear of worms
- vernalagnia - A romantic mood brought on by Spring. Also known as Spring Fever
- vernorexia - A romantic mood inspired by Spring
- verticordious - Describing an act that turns another from evil
- vespertilian - Resembling a bat
- vespertine - Happening in the evening vespine - Resembling a wasp vesthibitionism - The flirtatious display of undergarments by a woman vestiphobia - A fear of clothing vexillologist - A collector of flags vexillology - The study of flags viaticum - 1. Money and supplies given to someone going on a journey viaticum - 2. The Holy Communion given to a dying person vibratiunculation - A slight shudder or vibration vibrissae - The sensitive whiskers of a cat viciniphobia - A fear of neighbors or a neighborhood vigesimation - The act of killing every twentieth person vilipend - To verbally belittle someone viraginity - The masculine qualities of some women virgivitiphobia - A fear of being raped virgulate - Shaped like a rod virvestitism - A preference of some women to wear mens clothing visagiste - A make-up artist or a person whose specialty is cosmetics vitricophobia - The fear of one's stepfather vittate - Resembling a ribbon voidee - A last minute snack volitorial - Having the ability to fly volower - A person who performs baptisms voraginous - Pertaining to something which devours everything

W

- waggoner - A collection or book of nautical maps wanweird - An unhappy fate wapperjawed - Having a crooked jaw warison - A musical note used to signal the start of an attack wegotism - The excessive use of 'we' in writing, particularly in newspaper editorials wheep - A poor attempt at whistling whiddin - To be running like a hare williwaw - A sudden unexpected wind storm wimple - The traditional headress of nuns winx - To bray like a donkey, or speak foolishness winx - To bray like a jackass wittol - A man who meakly accepts his wife's adultery witzchoura - A woman's cloak with large sleeves. Primarily worn in the early nineteenth century witzelsucht - A feebly attempt at humor wlatsome - Describing something which is loathed wommacky - Shaking and weak while recovering from illness or surgery wuntee - A lonely old buffalo bull

X

- xanthippe - An ill tempered woman. (Also Socrates' wife) xanthochroid - Blond haired and blue eyed person with fair white skin xanthodont - Having yellow teeth xanthous - Yellow colored xenarthral - Resembling a sloth, anteater, or armadillo xenelasy - A law or rule that allows foreigners to be expelled without reason, or that allows a business to refuse to serve customers without reason xeniatrophobia - A fear of going to strange or foreign doctors xenium - A present given to a guest xenobombulate - To be malingering xenodochiophobia - A fear of foreign hotels xenodochium - A home for the disabled and for the friendless xenomancy - Divination by using the first stranger to be found xenonosocomiophobia - A fear of pick pockets, especially foreign ones xerophagy - A diet of bread and water xerophilous - Drought loving, particularly pertaining to plants xerophobia - A fear of dryness or dry places xertz - To gulp down quickly and greedily ximelolagnia - The desire to look a women who cross their legs ximelolagnia - The urge to stare at women who are sitting with their legs crossed xiphoid - Sword shaped xylology - The study of wood or of the structure of wood xylomancy - Divination using a piece of wood or magic using wood xylophage - One who eats wood xylophagous - Describing someone who eats wood xylophobia - A fear of forests or of woods xylopolist - One who sells wood products xylopyrography - The art of making patterns in wood using a hot poker xyresic - Being as sharp as a razor

Y

yashmak - The veil worn by Muslim women when in public yataghan - A long knife, common in Turkey, which has a double curved blade yaud - A worn out or old horse yburpananseca - The theft of a calf or ram, or of as much as the thief can carry yemeless - To be negligent and careless yestreen - Yesterday evening

youf - A quiet or muffled bark

Z

- zabernism - The unjustified use of or abuse of military or police authority, particularly in an aggressive manner
- zamzodden - Anything which is heated but not boiled, or heated with a very low heat
- zarf - A special sleeve for a coffee cup or a beer can
- zeitgeist - The general culture, education, and morals of a given era
- zelophobia - A fear of jealousy or intense emotion
- zenocratic - A government chosen by Zeus
- zenzizenzizenc - A number raised to the eighth power
- zills - The finger cymbals worn by belly dancers
- zizany - A dangerous or toxic weed
- zizith - The fringes at the corners of a tallith
- zoanthropy - The delusion that one is an animal
- zob - A worthless person
- zoilist - A very nasty or rude critic, or one who enjoys finding faults
- zoonosis - Any disease that can be passed from animals to humans
- zoophobia - A fear of animals
- zoosemiotics - The language of animals, or the study of animal communications
- zori - A form of sandals with a leather strap over the instep and a leather strip between the hallux and second toe
- zucchetto - A skull cap worn by Roman Catholic clerics
- zugzwang - A position in which any decision or move will result in problems.
- zygodactyl - Having two toes pointing forward and two backwards
- zymology - The study of fermentation
- zytheapsary - A brewery